As I see my calendar filling up with events scheduled for the next few months, I am reminded that the Fall and Winter quarters offer great opportunities for your church to engage your community and discover prospects for Sunday School. Here are a few suggestions:

- ✦ Request permission to include flyers promoting church events in your school's Friday Folders.
- ✦ Enter a float featuring your church in the local school's homecoming parade.
- ✦ Provide cards promoting your church's Children's Ministry for members to hand out to trick-or-treaters.

✦ Enlist church members to interact with parents who bring kids to your parking lot for Trunk or Treat.

✦ Have a booth where people can enroll in Sunday School at your Harvest Carnival.

✦ Provide cards with church information for carolers to hand out, door-to-door or at the mall.

✦ Host a community parents' night out for shoppers before Christmas.

Make it a point to register guests anytime you have an event at your church. Most people don't mind filling out a card to register for a door prize.

Finally, be sure that all the prospects you discover are assigned to a Sunday School class or department for ministry and follow-up. We are praying for your events. Let us know if we can help!
