The National Baptist Congress of Christian Workers is an auxiliary ministry to the National Baptist Convention of America International, Inc. As an auxiliary ministry, the Congress adopts and supports the vision of the Convention leadership in purposing and directing its work. The Congress is the Convention in the study of God's Word and in training for Christian service. Should you become a staff member of the Congress you will be expected to honor God with your best service dedicated to the glory of God. We see our work as fulfilling God's desire that mankind should come to know Him and then serve Him.
