

Draft outline—Partnership Cange Symposium

St. John's Episcopal Parish, Columbia

- Friday, 2/22/19 7:30p Reception and screening of “Bending the Arc”
- Brief reception and coffee to meet Haitian guests before screening. “Bending the Arc” is an award winning documentary premiered at Sundance Film Festival last year. It chronicles the ground-breaking global health work of Drs. Paul Farmer and Jim Kim which began with EDUSC in Cange, Haiti in the early 1980's.
- Saturday, 2/23/19 8a Registration and Coffee (suggested $15 registration fee to cover costs and support our missions in Haiti)
- 9a Welcome to St. Johns and housekeeping Fr. Nicholas Beasley
- Opening Prayer Bishop Andrew Waldo
- Welcome and introduce guests Dr. Harry Morse
- 9:15 Jacques Pasquette (ZL admin Cange & EBS grad)
- Update on our work and partnership in Cange (translation assist)
- 9:30 Fritz Raoul Joseph and Malachi St. Jean (med students in PAP & EBS grads)
- Growing up in Cange and transition from EBS to med school
- 10a Hypertension in Rural Haiti and Cange initiative Drs. Morse & Quattlebaum with Raoul & Malachi
- 11-11:45a Summits Education Dr. Earl Burch & Mtr. Ali Lutz PIH/Summits, DDiv candidate at Vanderbilt
- 11:45-12p Rotary partners in Literacy Haiti Rita Yarborough
- 12-1p Lunch Break

1p	Partners in Agriculture/CFFL	Gillaine Warne/Reginald Cean
1:45p	Economic Development—Singing Rooster Coffee	Justin Dena (Singing Rooster)
2-4p	Clemson Engineers initiatives and displays	David Vaughn, et al.
4p	Wrap up and discussion	Dr. Morse
4:30p	Closing Prayer	Rev. Canon Alan Bentrup

Sunday, 2/24/19 Option of Adult and or Youth Sunday school Forum with Haitian and out of town Guests.

Eucharist at St. Johns with participation of Haitian guests and visiting clergy.

Housing options with friends and church family as available. The Inn at USC is convenient but pricey (~$250+ per night). Most national motel chains have availability closer to $100/night within 15 minute drive of downtown.

Contact Michelle Rabon at St. John's for more detailed instructions. mwj@stjohnscolumbia.org