We Gather in God's Name

The votive candles on the table are a reminder of those from this congregation who are leading the Shelter Worship Service this morning at Jerusalem Presbyterian Church in Wales. The candles also represent our prayers for them and the Jerusalem Congregation.

As We Prepare for Worship Isaiah 6:1-3

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:
“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
The whole earth is full of his glory.”

Prelude

*Gathering Words – based on Psalm 138

Let us come to God with thanks.

We give you thanks, O Lord, with our whole hearts and sing your praise.

Let us remember God's love for us.

We give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and faithfulness;

Let us remember God's name and God's word,

for you have exalted your name and your word above everything.

Let us remember that God answers our call.

On the day we called, you answered us, and increased our strength of soul.

Let us praise God.

*Gathering Hymn #267 “Come, Christians, Join to Sing”

Call to Prayer

We come before God this morning knowing that we are people in need. As Isaiah confessed to God, so we also are people of “unclean lips” living amidst others of “unclean lips.” As Peter confessed to Jesus, “I am a sinful man.” We too are called to acknowledge our less than perfect selves to God. Let us be honest with God.

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

Gracious God, help us to see and recognize our shortcomings and faults that we can see when we come to you. Help us to hear and comprehend your voice calling us to acknowledge you and your claim on our lives. Help us to sense and embrace your grace and love when we tell you about our true lives.

(a time of silence to tell God whatever is on your heart)

Hymn #466 “Come and Fill Our Hearts” (words altered)

Please sing twice.

(The music is printed on page 12 of the bulletin.)

Come and fill our hearts with your grace.

You alone, O Lord, are holy.

Come and fill our hearts with your peace.

Alleluia.

God hears our prayers. We pray in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

Words of Assurance 1 Corinthians 15:1-2

Hear these words from Paul’s letter to Corinth: “Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that is proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which you are also being saved.”

Know, my friends, these words are true and the good news which we received and stand in, indeed saves us. Know the love which comes from the grace of God.

Our Thanksgiving #582

“Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me”

The Peace

The peace of God be with you.

And also with you.

God’s Word Comes Alive

---

Prayer for Illumination

May the Spirit bring these ancient words to life today. May our ears, our hearts, and our minds be open to something new today – so that we might be changed. Amen.

A Reading from the Hebrew Bible Isaiah 6:1-8 NRSV)

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup>And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

<sup>4</sup>The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup>And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup>The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." <sup>8</sup>Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

The word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading Luke 5:1-11 (NRSV)

5 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, <sup>2</sup>he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup>When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." <sup>5</sup>Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup>When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. <sup>7</sup>So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" <sup>9</sup>For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." <sup>11</sup>When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

In Our Prayers

This week's prayer list:

Thanksgiving for the birth of Lauren & Chris Giuliani's new baby girl, Eliza.

Jean Ripple's friend, Sidney Weiss, is facing surgery for an infection in her hip, which could result in a lot of tissue loss. Since mid-November she has lost her husband, had a heart attack and suffered sepsis.

Long time member, Jerry Zebrick, died Jan. 24. Please keep wife Pat, daughter Sherry (Ron) and son Craig (Linda) in your prayers.

Two health care residents passed away recently – Marilyn Merrill and Estella Gilgenbach. Estella had been worshipping with us regularly until recently and was a former choir director at Tippecanoe Church.

Our on-going prayer list:

Karen Anderson, Roxanne Lawrence, Jean Ripple, Gerry Kohl, Pat Zebrick, and Jane Arlozynski's brother Earl Duckwall.

The Wired Word Update

The Wired Word will not meet today due to the Shelter Service but will resume next Sunday, Feb. 17.

Pastor's Bible Study Update

The Bible Study group meets at 1:00 p.m. every Tuesday of the month except the third Tuesday. Join us as we reflect on the texts for the following Sunday. For more information, please contact Pastor Michelle at mahenrichs@gmail.com.

The 2019 Shelter Service

The 2019 Shelter Service will support The Waukesha Women's Center. Helping to provide safe shelter for those in very trying times will be our focus. TWC does so much! They really have no limits to what they are willing to do for their clients to make their lives seem as normal as possible and help guide them through their healing and eventual independence. That's why we decided to support the Client Resource Fund through our Shelter Service. There are so many stories and examples of how that fund has changed a life or saved a life!

If you'd like to help out with the Shelter Service, please let Connie Fellows know ASAP of your availability for the following dates: Feb. 24, March 3, and March 10.
