Have you joined a Bible Fellowship Group?? One of the best ways to connect with others and to do so around the Bible is through our Sunday morning 9:30am small groups! These groups study the Bible and act as a fellowship that prays, cares and shares together. Our BFG coordinator is Aloha Guillory, and we have groups for all ages. Take the next step and join a Bible Fellowship Group this coming Sunday! You're invited and we will be welcomed!

“Loving God, Loving Others, Sharing Jesus”

Dear WBC Family and Friends,

It sure has been a long, crazy, exciting, stressful, upside-down kind of year! The good news is that we are doing well, thanks in large part, to your continued participation in our church. I want to thank each of you for praying, giving, attending (whether in person or online), and serving. We are going to make it through this year together!

We have slowly, but surely, been adding in more and more of the ‘normal’ church functions back into the weekly schedule. Last month, we began both our Wednesday night services and our Sunday morning 9:30am Bible Fellowship Groups. It is beginning to feel a little bit more normal around here!

Let me encourage you by reminding you that God is not surprised or shaken by anything that has been happening in 2020! That’s great news! The old hymn says: “Have faith in God. He’s on His throne. Have faith in God. He watches o’er His own. He cannot fail. He must prevail. Have faith in God. Have faith in God.” Don’t you love the words, the truth of that old beloved hymn?! It’s so true!

“What’s ahead” you ask. Well, not many of our plans have worked out so well this year. We’ve canceled many events along the way as have many other churches. We are currently praying and pondering and waiting on what we can do and not do, what we should do and shouldn’t do as we fast approach the holiday seasons. Please pray for us as we continue to make decisions and adjust along the way.

Know that we are here for you and want to be a blessing to you. Call on us if we can be a help.

Prayerfully,

Bro. Jason

Psalm 121:1-2

I will lift up my eyes to the hills - From whence comes my help?
My help comes from the Lord, who made the heaven and earth.

“Loving God, Loving Others, Sharing Jesus”

From the Music Ministry,

As we approach October, I think about how we missed out on singing for Easter. I miss seeing you all at choir practice. It is always more than just a rehearsal..... we pray for one another's family and friends, we have shared hymns with the people at St. James House (please continue to pray for the residents and the workers there) and we prepare our hearts and voices to lead the congregation each Sunday.

I have watched webinars about whether or not it is okay to sing with masks on. There is still so much unknown as we begin the fall season, which is usually the start of the flu season, that at this time I want to just continue with having choir members join us on Sunday mornings in singing with the Praise Band.

But as I was thinking about what to write, I thought about the verses that tell us that God SINGS OVER US!

He knows what we are feeling during this time of uncertainty. The words of our visiting pastor come to mind. God is sovereign in EVERYTHING. He knows our needs, our concerns and He is there to lean on. Listen to this verse:

The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing.

Zephaniah 3:17

So for now, we will let God do the singing as we rest in His love. He delights in His people when we seek His face. And when we look at His beauty, we can't help but sing as well!
