

Instruments of Righteousness

Its somewhat hard to imagine that such finite people can be used by God in such amazing ways. In the broad spectrum of this wicked world the value of love is indeed demonstrated through people of grace. In such an awestruck event of the crucifixion of Christ, His death eliminated the sin barrier that separated mankind from God's seat of mercy. Truly the path has been made for those who believe. How is the direction made known? Who will be the ones who carry the cross to those who have not heard?

"How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" Romans 10:14-15

These are the days that the truth must proceed out of the voice of believers. These are the days that the messengers are not silent. These are the days that God's people, live out their faith as instruments of righteousness to the God they follow and not to men who lead ones astray.

So let us not be quiet and may the declaration of our lives be a song to the ears of the nations, in our own communities, in our own households and in our own lives.

May the God of the universe breath into you as an instrument today. May the song of righteousness ring out of you to the listeners of this world for their salvation and for the glory of God now and forever more, Amen!

Blessings,
