

The New

'Tis the season has left us and out with the old and in with the new has begun. The New Year is upon us and it's time to evaluate our lives just a little. I often resist the time to change as new moments in history are being created just because we stepped over into a new calendar year. Regardless to mine or your opinion, it is about to happen and we are about to experience it. Experience what? Change!

Change is happening all the time. It snows, it rains, it melts. Seasons change. We eat, we develop tummy fat and we get lazy. We exercise, we slim down, we get healthier. Over the course of time, events occur in our lives. Some of them God allows. The weather is in His charge. It rains, it pours, it stops. Other things happen and we wonder why? Our health, our interests, our relationships. Some things we cannot control, but others we can. God controls grace, He invented it. God provides love, he demonstrates it. God releases power. His anointing is in the Spirit of the repentant.

So what about this New Year thing? Do we change? God will create an environment of natural seasons and He will also provide grace and love. The formula for spiritual victory and peace for all. So it's now our turn. Do we trim the fat of spiritual dryness and get soaked in His Spirit? What will you do with what God provides? Will you grow and change or will get fat and well you know.

God bless you in this coming year.

Love and grace,

Pastor Art :)
