

Just Another Day

God's Word

It is not that there should be relief for others and hardship for you, but it is a question of equality. At the present time your surplus is available for their need, so their abundance may in turn meet your need, in order that there may be equality. As it is written: The person who had much did not have too much, and the person who had little did not have too little.

2 Corinthians
8:13-15
(CSB)

"Just another day the Lord has kept me. Just another day that the Lord has kept me. He has kept me from all evil; with my mind stayed on Him. Just another day that the Lord has kept (blessed) me."

It was just another (Christmas Eve) day at the end of a half day's work. Now most days I don't fork over cash to people holding signs on the street. I am definitely not one to pick up hitchhikers. Yet, as I approached the street exit of the parking lot I slowed to let a woman pulling luggage up the hill pass. She was struggling! She was tiny and appeared to be pulling more than her own weight. She was also juggling her lunch from Mc D's. When she cleared the exit she sat on a nearby wall to rest from her uphill climb.

I smiled as I lowered my window. Our eyes met and I asked her was she going to the bus station or the train station. She held back tears as I barely heard her get out "train station". I backed up, pulled over, moved the papers from the passenger seat, got out, put her very heavy bags in the back, and opened the door to let her get in.

She hadn't had time to wait for a cab and decided to walk to the train. Her name was Tasha. She blessed God and thanked me the whole 3 minutes out of my way to get her to where she needed to be. Of course, she offered me the money she would paid the cab. There was no way on earth I was going to take her money!

While driving off I assessed the situation in my mind with the Lord. It was strange. I didn't really "feel" anything. I was blessed to have been able to help. But, that's what Paracletes do, right? There was no pride. I wasn't "happy". There seemed to be no emotion attached to what had happened.

The above song ran through my spirit and I thought, "Isn't this what I (we) am supposed to do? Isn't this who I (we) am supposed to be?" Available.

Although this was not a typical day for me it certainly was just another day that the Lord had blessed me!

WALKING WITH THE SHEPARD

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
