PASTOR'S PONDERINGSScot Sorensen, Interim PastorTHE IMPORTANCE OF GRATITUDE

As the calendar turns to November it is a time to re-focus our attention on giving thanks and gratitude. The Bible is replete with examples of giving thanks; from Abraham, Deborah, and David in the Old Testament to Jesus, Peter, and Paul in the New Testament. But it is not just your pastor who encourages you to give thanks because it is good for your spiritual health, your doctor knows it is good for your physical and mental health, too.

Recently the Harvard Medical School published an article calling attention to the benefits of giving thanks. "The word gratitude is derived from the Latin word gratia, which means grace, graciousness, or gratefulness (depending on the context). In some ways, gratitude encompasses all of these meanings. Gratitude is a thankful appreciation for what an individual receives, whether tangible or intangible. With gratitude, people acknowledge the goodness in their lives. In the process, people usually recognize that the source of that goodness lies at least partially outside themselves. As a result, being grateful also helps people connect to something larger than themselves as individuals — whether to other people, nature, or a higher power."

Naturally, we understand that 'higher power' is our Creator and Savior. And yes, the source of that goodness lies outside of ourselves. We have experienced that connection to something larger than ourselves, namely Jesus when we practice deliberate gratitude.

The article continues, "In positive psychology research, gratitude is strongly and consistently associated with greater happiness. Gratitude helps people feel more positive emotions, relish good experiences, improve their health, deal with adversity, and build strong relationships."

There are over 150 admonitions to give thanks in the Bible. Here are just two, "give thanks in all circumstances" (1 Thes 5:18), "I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart," (Psalm 9:1)."

But, as we roll into the 21st month of the pandemic giving thanks is not always front of mind, let alone an easy thing to do. There has been too much death, too much loneliness and separation, too much anger and division, too much hatred and spite. In order to face this onslaught, we must practice the words of Scripture and give thanks in all circumstances. Notice, we are not tasked with giving thanks for all circumstance, but in all circumstances.

Recently in a sermon I asked the congregation to look for Jesus in their daily walk of life. Here is the other side of that assignment: give thanks. When we look for Jesus, we will see Jesus. And when we give thanks, we will be grateful people. And as grateful people we will more easily connect with God and others... and be happier, healthier children of God.

See you in worship,

Pastor Scot

TEEN TALK

Rob Williamson, Youth Director

*I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.
- Jeremiah 31:25*

Hello, and peace be with you all! I hope you had a wonderful October and that you're ready for the coming season!

First things first: I will be out of the office starting October 30th for a delayed honeymoon and won't be back until November 16th. This means no Confirmation class or SHY until November 21st, at which point we'll pick back up with our usual schedule. If you have to reach me, I'll be in Europe and won't be accessible by phone, but you can email me at youth@discovertheshepherd.org, and I will try to remember to check it every few days.

Now that COVID rates in our county have dropped to less panic-inducing levels, opportunities are opening back up for our youth here at Shepherd of the Hills. Our programs have started meeting in the Youth Center again, and the process of going through the cabinets and getting rid of everything we don't need has proven to be an even bigger challenge than anyone suspected! Still, it feels good to have the youth back in the space set aside for them where they can feel a sense of ownership, even if that means they have to start cleaning again!

Those of you at the second service may have noticed that we are starting our rotation of acolytes again. Some familiar faces are lighting the candles and helping with Holy Communion, but we have some new acolytes serving as well. Most of our grade-school children are already on the list; if you have a child in 3rd-6th grade and haven't received the acolyte schedule, please email me or contact Christine, and I will talk with you and get your child into the rotation when I return to the office. Also, please remember that if your child is new to acolyting, they need to go through acolyte training before they serve by themselves on a Sunday morning. The longer we go without training them, the more juggling we have to do with the schedule; please contact me so we can set up a time to get that done.

With that, I look forward to seeing everyone here in a couple weeks. For now, stay safe out there, stay warm as the weather cools, and remember that God is always with you.

That's it for now!

Rob

HONORING OUR VETERANS

Veterans Day has its roots in what was called Armistice Day, when a peace agreement ended World War I on November 11, 1918. President Wilson proclaimed that Armistice Day was to be marked with solemn pride in heroism and with gratitude for victory as well as the "opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice." In 1954, the remembrance was renamed Veterans Day to honor all U.S. military personnel. It's a reminder to pray for and honor all who serve and sacrifice, to support and assist their families, and to pray that God will bring peace on earth.

THE PRESIDENT'S POST

John Erickson

It's hard to believe there are only two months left in 2021. What an incredible year this has been. We started off 2021 still in the throes of the Pandemic. We had Pastor Bob's retirement in June, and currently have Pastor Scot as our Interim

Pastor to finish out the year.

The good news is that as we reach the end of the year, the pandemic has eased up, and we can take communion once again as we did before up at the Altar. The Steering Team approved the new Call Committee Team, which, with God's help, will enable us to find our next settled pastor for Shepherd of The Hills. Also, Harvest Fest and Thanksgiving Day are both right around the corner. A lot is happening as we finish out the year.

We have a lot to be thankful for this year. My very best to you and your family during this holiday season.

Blessings,

John

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

Pat Alvstad

We have been very pleased with the response to the coffee times before, between, and after Sunday morning services. Also, thanks for your contributions to our donation bowl!

Our goal has been to keep it simple and that has worked well so far.

Check out our basket contribution to the Harvest Fest. It will feature goodies from local businesses. Hope to see you there!

TIDYING OUR TEMPLE

Stan Stolte

The recent rain tested out the "new" berm that was created near the end of the stub road just down from the pre-school classrooms last summer, and I'm happy to say it passed. The berm was created to divert water runoff away from the houses, just down the hill, to the concrete ditch to avoid any going over the bank into their backyards. Upon checking the area out, all the water was either going to the concrete ditch or to the gutters on each side of the stub road.

Considering the amount of rain we got, the buildings and grounds survived quite well. There was some water that found its way in at each of the back corners of the sanctuary, which is not a new thing when we get considerable rain all at one time. Also, the gutter on the back side of the SHY building over-flowed due to it not being cleaned before the rain (overlooked at fall clean-up), and the down spout is plugged. Both of these areas will be addressed as needed to try to avoid a repeat.

The continuous and never-ending weekly pine needle and debris cleanup is being handled by our hardworking stewards. We also had some of the pallets from the back forty removed, which were delivered to a business in Green Valley.

Volunteers Needed

We are seeking volunteers for Communion Set Up, Replenishment, and Clean Up.

ATTENTION LADIES!

Laura Barton, Martha Pierce

Hello faithful women of the Shepherd of the Hills community!

The women of Shepherd of the Hills make up a very diverse group in age, background, passions, interests, and wisdom. Imagine what we can share with each other...life lessons, current events, knowledge, and most importantly wisdom!

We will be beginning a six week study beginning in January, on Wednesday evenings from 6:30—8:00. The study will be ending the week before Ash Wednesday. A second six week study will follow beginning the first week in May, and ending the week of June 5. A retreat will be held sometime between the two Bible Studies. We will love to have you join us for any or all of the Bible Studies and/or retreat.

We encourage you to prayerfully consider joining with other women on this journey. We will be studying Love Does by Bob Goss. In Love Does, Bob Goss shares remarkable stories while reminding us how living and loving to the fullest is the best way to make Jesus known in this world.

Contact Laura Barton or Martha Pierce with any questions you may have. Let's grow together!

The clocks roll back one hour
November 7, 2021 at 2 a.m.

PRESCHOOL PIPELINE

Kathy Webb, Preschool Director

As we start into November, our focus will be fall. We notice the weather getting chillier and the leaves and acorns falling off the trees. We will do some apple tasting, leaf sorting and talk more about pumpkins. As our Thanksgiving Feast approaches we will enjoy some cooking projects. We will practice our measuring skills, take turns stirring, and learn that when we mix the right ingredients together, we have some delicious food to eat. For our feast we will enjoy some chicken nuggets, oranges, corn muffins (that they made), homemade butter, and some Jello Jigglers.

Once our feasts are over, the children and staff will take a week off, for Thanksgiving Break, to rest up and to get us prepared for the busy month ahead, December.

STEWARDSHIP TEAM

Marilyn Weaver

The Stewardship Stew luncheon was a great success. Over 40 folks enjoyed good food and good fellowship. Thank you to all who turned in their Commitment Cards and those who haven't please do.

November we will be taking an offering for our Special Offerings. Look for Thanksgiving Envelopes in the back of the sanctuary chairs to make an offering for this fund. Applications for a special offerings are available and funds are available now. Ask Christine or Marilyn for an application.

The committee also assembled a "Fall Food Fest" Basket for the Harvest Fest. Its contents include a beautiful quilted runner and six place mats by Barbra Blue, Home Canned Goods by Marilyn, Sue, and Kevin, a homemade recipe by Pastor Scot and an expensive bottle of wine from Glenn.

ELCA TEACHING (<https://www.elca.org/Faith/ELCA-Teaching>)

Creeds

Like the Scriptures, the three ecumenical creeds — the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Athanasian Creed — are written documents. They originate from the earliest centuries of the Christian church's history, a time when theological and philosophical questions about the identity of Jesus were widely debated among Christians. All three creeds affirm that God is fully present in Jesus, that Jesus Christ is both God and human (not a semi-divine or superhuman creature that is neither). These three creeds are called ecumenical because they are all accepted and used by the overwhelming majority of the world's Christians. All three are affirmed in the Lutheran confessional writings and in the ELCA's governing documents.

Although these three creeds, like the Scriptures, are written, most Christians experience and use them spoken aloud with other Christians in worship. Along with many other Christians, Lutherans use the Apostles' Creed at baptism; it is also the Creed most often used in basic Christian education (as in the Small Catechism). Lutheran Christians often use the Nicene Creed at festivals like Easter and Christmas and during seasons of the year related to those festivals. Some Lutheran congregations recite the Athanasian Creed on Trinity Sunday (the Sunday after Pentecost) because of its focus on the relationships between the persons of the Triune God.

Santa Marta Christmas is coming because you care!

Our Drive to raise Christmas funds for Santa Marta Orphanage continues through 21 November. Please make your check out to Shepherd of the Hills with "Santa Marta Christmas" on memo line. Your generous donations will help cover the clothing, bedding, educational costs and playtime inadequacies.

Let's shout, "felice navidad", as they celebrative Christmas songs, smile and experience Christ's love thanks to you!

CORNUCOPIA—Cornucopia, a Greek word meaning "horn of plenty," has origins in Greek mythology. But the cornucopia became a religious symbol and was even stamped on Jewish coins. Overflowing horns, now common as Thanksgiving centerpieces, came to symbolize abundance and blessings.

OUTREACH TEAM

Chris Curtis

OCTOBER'S PUMPKIN SURPRISE!

With the amazing support of Larry's Produce, the Outreach Team was able to purchase 40 large pumpkins for the educators at Fairmont Charter School. RA Stolte, Don Curtis, and I delivered the pumpkins on October 19th. The teaching staff was ecstatic to pick out their pumpkins and Mrs. Holdener's class came out to the truck and delivered "Thank you" notes to the Shepherd of the Hills community! (They'll be on display this Sunday.) Mrs. Holdener described this little jaunt as her students' "field trip". The Fairmont staff is very appreciative of our thoughtfulness and generosity. Please continue to hold these talented and passionate educators in your thoughts and prayers.

OUTREACH BULLETIN BOARD

Our Outreach Board is slowly being transformed to reflect current activities that have brought smiles to our community here at Shepherd and to the surrounding neighborhood. We all have the capacity to share our time and talents. What a blessing we can be to those around us and what a gift it is to see our expressions of kindness and love, come right back in our direction! Let's celebrate those moments that make a difference!

NOVEMBER'S GRATEFULNESS NOTES!

Starting October 31st, there will be special "thank you" notes in the narthex all ready to go, so you can choose one and write a personal message of continued gratitude to our Fairmont Educators. What a tangible way of expressing our appreciation for all they do to support the surrounding neighborhood of children and families. Please come by to select a card and write a short message. It truly makes a difference to them and their students! (The cards will be delivered the week of November 22nd.)

QUILTING FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF (LWR)

On October 10th, 15 quilts that had been made by our group here at Shepherd of the Hills were on display in the sanctuary during both worship services. Pastor Scot gave a blessing and interesting information about the history of how these quilts are used for Lutheran World Relief.

A few days later, our quilts were taken to Bethel Lutheran Church in Cupertino. It is one of the designated places throughout the U.S. where they are collected. Then they are trucked to LWR warehouses for storage until needed for a disaster response anywhere in the U.S. or elsewhere in the world. Around 300,000 quilts are donated worldwide each year. See www.lwr.org for more information.

We will be meeting again in the Big Room on Sunday, November 7th, from noon to around 2:00. And we will continue to meet most months on the first Sunday of the month at this time. All are welcome to stop by and see what is happening. No sewing skills or prior experience is needed if you choose to participate!
