

McDonough Geranium Festival

Each May, the church tent is pitched in the town square for the annual festival that draws hundreds of visitors. The anonymous prayer jar provides a unique opportunity for prayerful engagement with the community, as well as the distribution of free waters and treats.

<https://geraniumfestival.com/>