

Kickball & Cookout in the Park

During the summer break, a community drop-in kickball game, followed by a hot dog cookout, takes place at McBrayer Park in Hampton on Friday evenings. In lieu of traditional vacation Bible school offerings, kickball in the park offers fellowship and play for all ages, meeting people “where they are,” and utilizing the city park, for which such activity was created. Volunteers provide the cookout and half the players.