

Little Free Library

Community library boxes, built and painted by St. Joseph's volunteers, are located at three different parks on the McDonough Housing Authority campuses. Year round donations may be made of new or gently used books for all ages. Volunteers deliver the books and help maintain the libraries.