A Message from Deacon Bobbie

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Joseph's,
In this time of being unable to meet, I would like to offer some thoughts and resources. Obviously, this is a difficult time for all of us. Our whole world has been upended and our daily lives have changed in ways that we never thought possible.

It is hard not to be able to go to St. Joseph's to worship, pray and socialize with our church family. Even though we are not together in a physical building, we can still pray for each other, talk on the phone, text, or email. Please remember that God is still present in our lives.

If you don't have a prayer book at home, you can find an online version here. You can go to the lectionary page to find out what the Scripture readings are for the day. Another good website where you will find Episcopal Church sermons and Bible studies is found here. The Cathedral of St. Philip sermons are available here.

I've included the sermon that I was going to preach on Sunday. Feel free to email me with your thoughts. KGirardin@msn.com

Please call the church if you need help with anything.

Peace and Blessings,
Deacon Bobbie
