AN UPDATE ON ALEX

This one is straight from Alex herself!

Hey! So this week we have been in Acworth Georgia! We are helping a church, Hillcrest Baptist, out here with a sports camp and a kids camp. I have been in charge of Soccer Camp and I have really enjoyed playing with kids, building new relationships, and sharing Christ with others! We have also knocked on around 1,000 doors inviting kids and adults to come to the camps! I talked to a lady named Becky at a house we stopped at. A little bit about Becky- 56/panic attacks/anxiety/hasn't been to church in 17 years. Monday night, I talked Becky into coming to church with me. I went and picked her up and she enjoyed it! She came back the next night and had a panic attack and had to go by ambulance to the ER. The last thing she said before leaving that night was, "This is why I don't go anywhere." We immediately began to pray for her! She did not come back the next day but she text me and said, "Hey, I want to come back to church Thursday night. Could you give me a ride?" Super thankful that she decided to come back! Thank you, Mt. Zion, for your prayers! Please pray for safe travels! We will be traveling over 2,500 miles in the next 2-3 days!

THIS WEEK'S PRAYER ADDITIONS

Prayer was requested for the family of Johnnie McKay; Tina Farber; Amanda Brumfield; the family of Joyce Holloway; Dorothy Daniel; the Allen Family; Ellen Busch; Barbara Daggett; Melba Lytle; Donald Draper.

GOD USES HUMBLE SERVANTS TO ACCOMPLISH HIS GREAT WORK.

Luke 12:32 – “Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom”

A friend once spent a day installing large stone steps in his backyard. When his 5-year-old daughter begged to help, he suggested she just sing to encourage him in his work. She said no. She wanted to help. Carefully, when it would not endanger her, he let her place her hands on the rocks as he moved them.

He could have built the steps in less time without her. At the end of the day, though, he not only had new steps but also a daughter bursting with pride. “Me and Dad made steps,” she announced at dinner that night.

From the beginning, God has relied on people to advance His work. After equipping Adam to cultivate the land and supervise the animals, God left the work of the garden in his hands (Gen. 2:15-20).

The pattern has continued. When God wanted a dwelling place on earth, a tabernacle and temple did not descend from the sky; thousands of artists and craftsmen worked to fashion them (Ex. 35-38; 1 Kings 6). When Jesus proclaimed the new reign of God's kingdom on earth, He invited human beings to help. He told His disciples, “Pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest” (Matt. 9:38).

As a father does with his children, so does God welcome us as His kingdom partners.

Heavenly Father, thank You that in Your love and wisdom, You invite us to accomplish Your acts of love, service, and kindness here on earth. Thank You for the privilege of “helping” You.

(By Phillip Yancey in “Our Daily Bread”)
