CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT MAKEOVER

Thank you once again to all of the amazing helpers we've had over these past several weeks! You've all worked really hard to help make this children's department wing super fun and welcoming to kids of all ages. The Cubbies and Puggles rooms and both nurseries are finished with painting. Some of the rooms still have some décor to go up, but they look great! We will continue to work on the remaining 2 classrooms this week and next week.

Paint Work Day #7 will be this Wednesday, August 10th, from 6:30-8:00 p.m. We will continue to work on taping and painting the remaining classrooms. Anyone who is not involved in the AWANA leader training is encouraged to come help us get this project finished before school starts back.

We only have 2 paint work days left, August 10th & 17th. Different groups of people will be in training on each of these nights, but there will be painting going on for anyone available to help.
