HAPPY 2017

As we enter 2017 let us remember our God is the great "I Am!"

This means:

I was regretting the past and fearing the future.

Suddenly my Lord was speaking:

My name is I Am.

When you live in the past, with its mistakes and regrets,

It is hard. I am not there. My name is not I Was.

When you live in the future, with its problems and fears,

It is hard. I am not there. My name is not I Will Be.

When you live in this moment, it is not hard. I am here.

My name is I Am!.

We encourage you to come visit our library and check out a good book to read .

SCHEDULE!

Our regular schedule of services and activities will resume this Wednesday, January 4th.

What are you waiting on?

The New Year is always a great time to begin new things to improve you life. Some of us make resolutions to make ourselves fit and trim or save more money or not put things off until the last minute. We have all made these resolutions and for many they are empty words that fall by the wayside throughout the year. It is easy not to do these things and that helps us not do the things God wants us to be doing. What is the harm in not being involved in the Lord's work? Someone else will do it. Really!

When we wait to do the Lord's work for whatever reason we use to justify our thinking even though we know we should be serving many things are left undone. I am waiting for someone to ask me, or I am waiting for some other season or I am waiting for something to change or..... you fill in the blank. I know we are all busy and our lives are filled with things that are important but using the waiting excuse can hurt others and us. Isn't there something you should be doing for the Lord? Well, what are you waiting on? Wait on the Lord in Isaiah 40 is not an excuse but a source of strength. Servant needed, no waiting. How about you.
