Parenting Tool:

Bless your child's dedication to the counsel of the Word of God rather than the world.

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers." Psalm 1:1-3

In what ways is my child already dedicating himself to the counsel of the Word of God?

- Tell your child...
- <Child's Name>, you diligently dedicate yourself to the counsel of the Word of God when you...

In what ways do I hope my child will further receive the counsel of the Word of God?

- Tell your child...
- <Child's Name>, I hope that in the future you will continue to dedicate your life to the counsel of the Word of God even when things like... cause you to question it.

What challenge will my child likely face this year regarding dedicating themselves to the counsel of the Word of God?

How will I commit to helping my child face this challenge?

When will be the best time to give my child this blessing?

Is there a "meaningful marker" that I can give my child to make this blessing memorable?
