AUGUST, 2018

Prayer Vigil Set for August 7th

A Prayer Vigil will be held in the sanctuary on Tuesday evening, August 7th, from 6:00—7:00.

Members and friends of the congregation are invited to the sanctuary for a time of quiet meditation and prayer.

Jonathan Stanley will be playing hymns during a part of the vigil. A sheet will be available with Scripture texts and questions for reflection. Also, candles will be available for lighting.

There are many prayers to offer during this time, and you are welcome to join others.

A Heartfelt Thank You!!

Janet Rhodes joined the MPC staff early in 2017. She has been a great addition to the work and ministry of the church, representing us well to the public and serving the church with a great spirit.

It is, therefore, with regret that Janet leaves as our office manager. When you see Janet, please let her know how much we have appreciated having her on staff.

The Personnel Committee will be working to fill the position.

Just for Laughs!!

Announcements

FUNNY FLUBS FROM STUDENT ESSAYS AND EXAMS

Richard Lederer, author of The Abbot of Absurdity passed on the following bloopers from essays and exams written by Sunday school students:

“Esau was a man who wrote fables and sold his copyright for a mess of potash.”

“The brother of Jacob was called Seesaw.”

“The Israelites made a golden calf because they didn’t have enough gold to make a cow.”

“Joshua led the Hebrews in their victory in the battle of Geritol.”

“Solomon had 200 wives and 700 cucumbers.”

“The people who followed the Lord were called the 12 opossums.”

Women’s Bible Study: The Women’s Bible Study group will resume our study of the book, Parables, on Wednesday, August 1, at which time we will be looking at Chapters 6 and 7 in that book.

LAFFS: LAFFS will be going to Stream Cliff Herb Farm on Wednesday, August 1, 2018. We will have the 11:00 a.m. seating. (Please note change in time.)

Choir Practice: Choir practice will resume Wednesday, August 1st. If you would like to join the Spirit-Led Choir for the first Sunday of each month through November, you are invited to meet in the choir room at 9:30 to rehearse the simple anthem and responses for use in the service that morning. No previous rehearsal, experience, or long-term commitment is required.

Finance: There will be no finance report, as Session did not meet during the month of July.

Announcements (cont'd)

Acēs: ACES will meet at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 14th for a brown-bag lunch and program. Everyone is welcome.

Music Notes

In the month of August, the service music will come from the South German Baroque repertoire. Composers such as Pachelbel, Kerll, Muffat, and Froberger were composing preludes, fugues, ricercars, toccatas and fantasias. These pieces, however, are typically shorter and less fiery than those by their North German counterparts. In Southern Germany, the influence of Catholic Italy produced a musical calming effect, while the Protestant Reformation, running rampant in North Germany, inspired composers to compose louder and faster works. One notable exception, with a youtube video linked below, is Johann Pachelbel's prelude in d minor. This piece is every bit as thrilling as those from the North German tradition. It opens with an extended pedal solo and explores various musical textures before concluding in the major key.
