THANK YOU SO MUCH, MPC!!!! We have an amazing church with a huge servant's heart. I'm so grateful to belong to this church family.

FROM THE DEACONS

The Deacons are meeting on the second Sunday of each month again. We meet and discuss any needs of the congregation. We try and stay in touch with the congregation by text or phone calls or sometimes with cards.

Items from the last meeting: We have been helping Staci Torres move into an apartment in Hanover. She is doing well; feel free to call her. We try to discuss as many members of the congregation that we have visited and needed prayers and assistance. Last month we helped 10 families in the community at a cost of $752, and we gave the House of Hope $250 for the month.

The Smock fund is down to $658 and we have applied for more funds. The Smock Committee meets on August 25, and we pray they will continue to help our Deacons' fund.

If you are not sure who your personal Deacon is, please call or text me, Bill Ohlendorf, at 812-701-9357 and I will be glad to let you know. If you need assistance, we hope we can help. Please call a Deacon or the church.

If you would like to donate to the Deacons, you can do so by mailing it to the church located at 202 Broadway, Madison, IN 47250.

Musicians Sought

As it has been advised for the choir to not assemble to rehearse together, nor to lead worship on Sundays, Jonathan is seeking instrumental and vocal musicians to provide offerings of special music to fill what had been the anthem spot in the order of worship until such a time as the choir might reconvene. If you have any interest or ability in volunteering to assist, please let Jonathan know which date(s) you might be available. He is happy to accompany soloists on organ or piano if appropriate. Many thanks!

Interim Pastor Nominating Committee Report

The Interim Pastor Nominating Committee is still hard at work, in cooperation with the Ohio Valley Presbytery, creating Madison Presbyterian Church's Ministry Information Form. This is the document prospective interim pastors will review to get acquainted with the demographics of our congregation to begin to discern if they might feel a nudge from the Holy Spirit to apply. As always, this committee appreciates your prayers.

NOTES OF INTEREST

Music Notes

It's no secret that J. S. Bach is my favorite composer. His contributions to organ literature and to the entirety of music are unmatched by any single person before or since. It's easy to call him a genius, but that term has lost a bit of its edge in common usage. This month I would like to share with you a Bach work that really exemplifies his genius. "The Crab Canon" from Musical Offering is a single line of music that can be played backward or forward. The genius of this piece is that it makes musical sense when played backward and forward at the same time. Not only is each version of the line musically satisfying in isolation, the composite (forward and backward) makes a satisfying counterpoint. I hope you enjoy the youtube video of the work below.

This video does a particularly good job of giving a visual representation of what is going on in the music. Just follow the bouncing ball.

You are in my prayers. Jonathan
