On January 6, the western Church observes the Feast of Epiphany. This is the day we recall the Christ Child being visited by Magi from the east and presented with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. This event has more significance than is apparent on the surface. Epiphany has also been called the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, a clue that God sent the Son to redeem us all, not only the Jews. One of the pieces of music most closely associated with Epiphany is the chorale, "O Morningstar How Fair and Bright." While the text itself does not have much to do with the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, the Morningstar imagery reminds us of the star the Magi followed to find the child. One of the most highly regarded settings of this chorale in the organ repertoire is the chorale fantasia by Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707), a Danish/German composer and mentor to the great Johann Sebastian Bach. A youtube link to a video of the piece follows.

If you listen carefully, you can hear the zymbelstern (tinkling bells) at the beginning of the piece. I hope you enjoy the video.

You are in my prayers. Jonathan

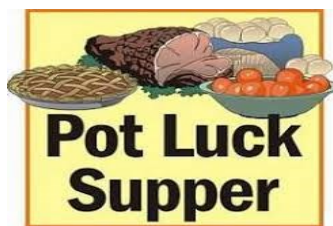

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Annual Congregational Meeting: Session has scheduled the Annual Congregational Meeting for Sunday, January 28, following worship.

Women's Bible Study: Ladies, during the month of January, the Women's Bible Study is going to be discussing the book, Same Kind of Different as Me. This is a true story written by and based on the lives of Ron Hall and Denver Moore. It is an exceptional book and one I think you would enjoy reading. Even if you never attend our Bible studies, I encourage you to get a copy of this book, read it and join us on Wednesday, January 3, as we continue our discussions.

LAFFS: LAFFS will meet at Boneyard Grill on Wednesday, January 3, at 11:30 a.m. Please call Judith Glass at 812-273-1796 or the church office at 812-265-2952 to make a reservation.

ACES: ACES will resume potluck suppers at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 4.

Blood Drive: The blood drive will be on Thursday, January 11, 2018, and the end-of-the-month meal at the Salvation Army will be on Saturday, January 27, 2018. There will be signup sheets for volunteers to work, make the Sloppy Joes and bake cookies. Cash donations are welcome, too!

House of Hope Volunteers: The House of Hope is in need of volunteers. The biggest need is the role of guided shopper. This is the most rewarding role helping people select items and making suggestions on how to use them. Every Tuesday evening and Friday morning, there is a need for around 25 volunteers. Training is provided. Each time around 50 people come for assistance. New people come every month. Hours are Tuesday from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. and Friday from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Volunteers need to arrive about 15 minutes prior to opening.
