DOUG

So, PRAY

A small boy was asked if he ever prayed. In answering the question the boy made a wise and profound distinction. He said, "Sometimes I pray, but sometimes I just say my prayers." There is a world of difference between "saying our prayers" and experiencing the power of prayer.

Prayer is not talking. Prayer is listening. Prayer changes things and one of the first things it changes is us. H. William Gregory, in his book And the Answer Is Yes! writes that "Prayer is not a magic lamp. It is not something we can hold in our hands and fondle, calling forth some genie in the sky to make our wishes come true and produce for us whatever the deepest desires of our hearts might be. That is not an adequate model for prayer."

How do you change the station on your TV set? Well, if you don't stand up, walk to the set, and turn a knob, how do you change the channel? We like to push a button from across the room and get an instant result. Remote controls allow us to have complete control without effort and we love it. Have we grown too accustomed to the idea of being in effortless control? We often try to use prayer as a remote-control device to get the "channels" and "programs" we want. Can we push a button and change God?

"Prayer is not a way to get what we want to happen, like the remote control that comes with the television set," writes Rachel Naomi Remen. "These remote-control devices are handy. No doubt about it. But here's the deal: Prayer is not about getting control; it is about giving up control. When we pray, we don't change the world, we change ourselves." We set ourselves up for disappointment when we expect God to change the world according to our vision. Maybe God has a different vision of healing, wholeness, happiness, peace, strength and success than we do.

So, pray! Pray what's on your heart! God is listening. God loves you. God will understand. You may not get the answer you expect, you may not even understand the answer at first, but an answer will come and that answer may well be a new way of seeing, a new way of hearing, a new way of being you.

The ChristNet overnight shelter, which we hosted in February, will be closing for the season on May 26 and the guests will find alternative housing. The Daytime program remains OPEN year round to provide job and housing assistance, referrals for services and lunch each day. Please continue to pray for our guests.

Thank you to all of you who supported our ChristNet Carrabba's Fundraiser on March 16. We had a very nice crowd and raised $3400 this year. This is the 13th year Carrabba's has hosted the luncheon and through the years their generosity has enabled us to earn over $37,000. Please visit Carrabba's often and when you do, thank them for their support of ChristNet.

ChristNet has another fundraiser scheduled on Thursday, June 20. This one is FREE! GORNO FORD has invited ChristNet to participate in its Community Fundraiser "Test Drive." program. All YOU need to do is sign up, (one per household) test drive a car and FORD MOTOR will donate $20 for each test drive. We are limited to 300 individuals. This is a fantastic, easy way for ChristNet to continue to raise needed funds. Please mark your calendar and watch for more details on the time and location. We need you!

Thank you again for your continued dedicated support of ChristNet.

Greetings for the Merry Month of May!

Time for May flowers, and that makes me think about mothers—my mother, mother-in-law, grandmothers, I'm sure you know what I mean. Mother's Day. However, in my family growing up, it was also birthday season. Either my youngest brother or my dad shared Mother's Day with Mom. Lots of times, we'd eat out on Mother's Day, always her choice, to celebrate the "Big 3" events, and if there was a special menu with few choices, it became a disappointing event. Nobody got to pick something special from the menu and Dad grumbled about the inevitable price increase, but it was usually the same thing, at a new place the next year.

Lucky for all of you, the UMW has you covered for a Mother's Day meal that you will always remember. Come dine with us at the UMW Cafe, located in Compton Hall, Faith United Methodist Church, on Friday, May 10 at 6:00 p.m. We know how it is on Friday after a week of working. You want food, you just do NOT want to prepare it! You can choose from our varied and delicious menu offerings that commemorate mothers.

What is this you may ask? It's a mystery to me. Maybe it will be spaghetti. Maybe some soup. PB&J? Hamburger Helper? Finger food or fine dining? Only the chef knows and she's not telling. You will receive a menu of available selections after you've been seated and the chef assures me it will be delicious as her mother's favorite dishes were always enjoyed eating out! It's a family celebration. Please plan on joining us as we unravel the mystery of the menu! Merriment is guaranteed! Space is limited, so make your reservation ASAP. Thanks!

Just to make May a bit merrier, we will also have our Spring Rummage Sale on May 15-17. Drop off and setup begins Monday, May 13. Sales begin on Wed. May 15 from 6-8 p.m., Thursday, May 16, 10-4, and $3 Bag Day is Friday, May 17 from 10-noon. Lots of help is needed, so please join us for some merriment! Proceeds from this sale go towards missions.

Merriment abounds:

-Church Women United meets Friday, May 3 at 12:30 p.m. May Friendship Day is the topic. More information will be in the church bulletin. CWU is comprised of many different denominations in the downriver area.

-Faithful Readers will meet at Terri Steinhauer's home on May 21 at 11 a.m. to discuss News of the World by Paulette Giles.

-Afternoon Delights meets in the parlor at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, May 28. This is a great opportunity to get to know one another. Someone always has a good idea to share and discuss.

-Movie Night is Friday, May 24 at 6:30 p.m. At this time, the movie selection is to be determined.

Looking forward, please note that the Garden Party, originally scheduled for June 19 at the Trenton Cultural Center will be June 12 instead. We did not realize there was a conflict with the city schedule when we planned this event. Our apologies for any inconvenience or confusion.

Also, we are beginning to plan for the 2019-20 year! If you have any ideas or thoughts you'd like to share, please let us know. Remember, our purpose is mission; mission that is faith, hope, and love in action.

Looking forward to seeing you this merry month of May!

THE GIVING TREE

For HUNGRY
CHILDREN
April 14 – May 5

The theme of caring for the poor and hungry is a prevalent one in Scripture. It becomes clear as we read through the Bible that God is concerned for the poor, hungry and oppressed. God is not only concerned, but is calling any who proclaim to be God's people to share that concern. Locally, we have families with two to eight children that can use our help. We especially want to cater to these young children.

There is a beautiful story called The Giving Tree. Sometimes it feels as though we are always giving, just like in the story. But, like the tree in the story, we always count our blessings and give a little more.

During the month of April we distributed boxes to fill with food that children are fond of, in recognition of Children's Week and Mother's Day. The appreciation and happiness this gesture creates among the families who receive the food boxes is so heartwarming.

Thanks for your participation, please know that there will be mothers and children in our area much happier with your generosity than they would have been.

Please return all boxes and food donations by Sunday, May 5.

VERSE FOR MAY – “For God so loved the world that he gave his ONE and ONLY Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” John 3:16

Usually in May someone says, you know April showers bring May flowers. Today as I write to you I am thinking of another miracle; that is the Risen Christ! We have all been cleaned, washed white of our sins, through the redeeming love of our Lord Jesus Christ! I hope you celebrated this wonderful miracle of Easter. It's my hope you learned something more about it through the reading of the book, "It is Finished".

I must say I am sorry I wasn't more present in the month of April for you. To provide time to read our book and for us to discuss how that last week of Jesus' life made him feel and how it made you feel to read about it.

I thank all of you who kept my husband, Herb and me in your prayers through the month of April. What a test of our faith and love of God we experienced. As I am writing to you, Herb is still in the hospital. But, I do believe that all will work out; that's the promise we've been given.

Now, for activities in May we will have Youth Group on May 5 following Confirmation Class. It's Cinco de Mayo; so we need to celebrate; play some fun games and eat tacos and the whole works! Bring your favorite games that day!

On Sunday, May 12 we are putting on the Mother's Day Ice Cream Social between services and following the second service. So, come to church at 9:00 a.m., to help scoop ice cream and get set up! We'll accept a LOVE OFFERING to put towards our WEEK OF MISSIONS trip in August.

Then, I am trying to plan a fun crafting experience for you at the AR Workshop in Woodhaven. Right now, I'm waiting to hear back from them; I requested Saturday, May 18 at 2:00 p.m., or Sunday, May 19 at 2:00 p.m. The cost is between $30-$40 for the supplies and the Workshop Instructor to help us with our projects. Parents or any interested adults are invited! I will provide the snacks! There will be a $15 non-refundable deposit; due by Sat. May 11.

We will meet again on Confirmation Sunday, following church at 1:15 p.m.; see you then! I will have a special reward for anyone who can recite any one of our bible verses from the last six months! So, try to get one stuck in your head and heart!

We will not meet over the Memorial Day weekend! I hope you have a great month! I'm looking forward to seeing you soon!

Keeping it in Faith,

Cheryl Lentner, Youth Director 734-726-2437

Dear Faith UMC Family and Friends,

Thank you for the love you shared with us when Bob's mother passed away. In years past, she would visit for a few weeks and always enjoyed worshipping here with us. You welcomed her and she felt that she had made a few friends "way up in Michigan." The memories of her that you shared with us make us smile; she did indeed make friends way up here in Michigan!

Love, Reje and Bob Eberhardt

DATED MATERIAL

The AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY is sponsoring a Relay for Life event in our area on Saturday, May 11, 2019 at Heritage Park in Taylor, MI. It starts at 10 a.m. and you are welcome to join this group.

The Faith UMC team will not be participating in this event. It is possible that we will have our own LUMINARY celebration during the summer like we did last year.

Please keep all persons affected by CANCER in your prayers for better treatments and a cure from this disease.

Thank You, Alice Shenton

The church extends its Christian faith and sympathy to the family of Esme McLauchlan who passed away on April 10. Her memorial service will be held at Faith on Sunday, May 26.

Faithful Readers will meet Tuesday, May 21 at 11 A.M. to discuss the book, News of the World by Paulette Giles at the home of Terri Steinhauer.

Ruth Briggs
