CHURCH PROFILE

INTRODUCTION

School Creek Baptist Church was organized September 1, 1879. It is well grounded in the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word - "The Holy Bible". Our roots run deep throughout the spiritual and physical world. We are mission-minded both physically (volunteer work) and financially (giving to numerous causes). We are a family of Christian brothers and sisters with a burning desire to help all people come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

HISTORY AND FACILITIES

The first congregation met in nearby private homes and public school buildings until the first permanent structure, identified as the Worship Center, was completed April 28, 1901, for a total cost of $940.79. We encourage a visit to our web site <http://schoolcreekbaptist.com/> for more history.

LOCATION

School Creek Baptist Church is located in eastern Lampasas County near School Creek and the Lampasas River, approximately sixteen miles northeast of Lampasas, eighteen miles north of Kempner, and eight miles south of Adamsville. The church is on County Road 3420, one fourth mile west of FM 2527.

COMMUNITY DEMOGRAPHICS

School Creek Baptist Church is situated in a farming and ranching community. Over the past twenty-five years, the community has become more diversified. Many people have moved into the community to retire; some of these simply like the country atmosphere.

OUR CONGREGATION

The membership of School Creek Baptist Church is diversified in age from infants to senior adults and includes: military personnel, Fort Hood civilian workers, school teachers in our local schools in Lampasas, Copperas Cove and Killeen, and people of various other occupations. People come to the church from the neighboring towns of Lampasas and Kempner, some driving from eighteen to twenty miles. More than fifty percent of our members are over fifty years old. The average Sunday morning worship attendance is 80. The average Sunday morning Bible study attendance is 45. The music program is led by a very competent, skilled director and the choir is an exceptionally strong integral part of worship ministry each Sunday. Many church members are consistently active supporting mission programs in Lampasas. The Youth program includes summer ministry activities to homeless individuals in Austin, TX. Vacation Bible School is an outstanding productive ministry influence in Lampasas County with average attendance of 75.
