STEWARDSHIP MINUTE

God honors us with the privilege of being the stewards of His Gospel. Because we know that Jesus has already given us His life, has risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, and has promised to return for the sake of our salvation, we are able to live in the grand and joyous confidence that God is at work in our stewardship. Rev Terry Forke wrote in the February 2014 edition of the Lutheran Witness: "Day by day, where your work and play, God is using the life you live and words you speak to proclaim the Gospel; to invite your friends, neighbors, co-workers and family to meet Christ Who is our Savior."

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
October 10, 2021

Amos 5:6–7, 10–15 Hebrews 3:12–19 Mark 10:17–22

Christ Jesus Is the One and Only Good by Whom You Inherit Eternal Life

The Lord is the Author and Giver of life, as well as a consuming fire of judgment against all “who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate” (Amos 5:12). “Seek the LORD and live,” therefore, by hating what is evil, loving what is good and doing what is just and right, according to His Word. “And so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you” (Amos 5:6, 14–15). Understand that “no one is good except God alone” (Mark 10:18). The life that you are called to live is found neither in your “great possessions,” nor in your good works, but only in Christ Jesus. Let go of “all that you have” and follow Him, even unto death, and “you will have treasure in heaven” (Mark 10:21–22). Do not harden your heart against His voice, nor turn away from Him, lest you “fall away from the living God.” Rather, hear and heed His call, cling to His Word, and “exhort one another every day,” that you may remain steadfast in Christ and “firm to the end” (Heb. 3:12–15).
