STEWARDSHIP MINUTE

Money is an integral part of our lives, because so much of life revolves around it. In God's Word, we find many references to money and possessions. In fact, it is one of the most discussed topics in Scripture. The Bible helps us see that our faith influences how we handle money, and we also see that how we handle it influences our faith. Faith and money intersect constantly. Jesus tells us that we are to serve God rather than to be slaves to money and possessions. We cannot worship the Almighty and the almighty dollar. With God's help, we can fix our eyes and hearts on Jesus and serve Him only.

THE DAY OF PENTECOST

June 9, 2019

Genesis 11:1-9; Acts 2:1-21; John 14:23-31

The Holy Spirit Gives Peace

Following the flood, Noah's descendants failed to spread out and fill the earth as God had spoken. Rather, they exalted themselves; with "one language and the same words" (Gen. 11:1), they spoke proudly and arrogantly. The Lord humbled them by confusing "the language of all the earth," dividing and dispersing the people (Gen. 11:9). That dispersal was reversed on Pentecost Day (the 50th day of Easter), when God caused the one Gospel of the Lord, Jesus Christ, to be preached in a multitude of languages. "At this sound the multitude came together" (Acts 2:6), for the preaching of Christ is the primary work of the Holy Spirit, whereby He gathers people from all nations into one Church. The Holy Spirit teaches and brings to our remembrance the words of Jesus, which are the words of the Father who sent Him. These words bestow forgiveness and peace to those who keep and hold on to them in love for Jesus. "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid" (John 14:27).

Many people seek wise counselors. The Holy Spirit is the world's best counselor. In today's Gospel, Jesus promised that the Father would send the Holy Spirit in His name as Counselor. In this ministry, the Holy Spirit both honestly convicts us of sin and tenderly comforts us with good news of forgiveness for Jesus' sake. We gather to hear God's Word and receive the Sacrament, which together have been called "the Means of the Spirit" through which the Holy Spirit applies the Law and the Gospel in our lives.
