

Christmas Is Coming ...

In a little under 60 days, stockings will be hung by the chimney with care in hopes that St. Nick will soon be there.

Before that, as presents are being wrapped, decorations are being hung, and the smells of Christmas cookies baking in the oven, FUMC will be bringing you some holiday music for you and your family to enjoy. If you saw our holiday concert last year, then you know you will be in for a treat and if you missed it, then you will get a second chance to enjoy the music and singing of Liza DiSavino and AJ Bodnar. They will be live from their home studio in Kentucky directly into your home. Although we would love to have them back in the sanctuary, this isn't possible this year. Due to COVID-19 the FUMC handbell choirs will not be joining them this year. Liza and AJ will be playing a variety of Christmas and folk music in a two-hour concert entitled "A Cozy Christmas" to benefit the music programs at FUMC. This concert will be on Sunday Dec. 20th at 2pm. We hope to make it available for up to a week following the live virtual performance as well on YouTube or FUMC website. A suggested donation of $20 is requested in order to obtain the zoom or YouTube links. What we need from you:

1. To get the information necessary to watch the concert, send a check or use PayPal with Christmas Concert noted in the memo, along with your email address and phone number. We must receive your request by December 16th at 12:00 noon for you to receive the link on December 17th or 18th by email or telephone.
2. Most importantly, tell your family and friends about this opportunity to share a wonderful concert for a small donation. If you would like to sponsor a friend or family viewing of the concert, please send a donation indicating as such to Jeff.

This concert is sponsored by:

*Dick and Joyce Miller, Dana Horrell and Marti Swords-Horrell, Rosalie Higgins, Peter and Cathie Paluch,
Allison Bookhout and Bruce Von Holtz*