

Start!: Tools for Revitalizing Your Congregation

4:00 – 5:00 p.m. Wednesdays via Conference Call

Starts March 25

Dial-in number: (712) 770-4035

Access code: 649709#

Congregations today face tough challenges, but a number of visionary church leaders are stepping up with new ideas. What are the best practices for revitalizing a congregation? How can we harness these tools to get the process of change underway? Each session includes a brief lecture, question and answer, general discussion, and follow up tips. This course, which will be offered via conference call, starts March 25 and runs for four weeks.

Topics:

March 25: Get To Know the Community Through Mapping

April 1: Yes, Congregations Can Learn New Habits

April 8: Repurpose Worship Space, Don't Rebuild

April 15: Equipping Volunteers Builds a Strong Church Community

Teacher: Rev. Dana Horrell, Ph.D. is Pastor of Cooperstown United Methodist Church, Coeditor of The Parish Paper and author of Engage!: Tools for Ministry in the Community (Fortress Press, 2019).