

Blessed Beyond Measure

Scripture: "Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord, & the fruit of the womb is His reward."

Psalms 127:3

The birth of a child or grandchild is one of life's greatest joys. How God blesses us with the gift of life is a miracle unto itself. Happy is one who can share adventures with those they love. Adventures such as a nature walk, exploring a museum, taking in a ballgame, sitting together in church (my favorite), or any other activity that promotes love, oneness, and quality time. When we reach out to a child or grandchild, is it rewarding for us and them. Do you remember the first time your child or grandchild held their arms open for you to pick them up? I can only image that what the image the apostle Paul had running through his mind when he said we can go to God in Heaven by crying "Abba Father." Think about that. The Creator of the Universe is waiting for us to come to Him with reckless abandonment and lift our hands in surrendered and say, "Daddy, please pick me up. I feel, made a mistake, and messed up. Will you help me? Will you hold me during this trying season, please?" God has blessed us all with more than we could ever in a lifetime thank him. However, today would be a good day to start trying. When you see your spouse, child, grandchild, loved one, friends, church member, etc., just take a moment and say thank you God for your blessings towards me. I know you didn't have to do it, but you loved me so much that you did. Trust me, you wont regret that you did!

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank you for blessing my family. Bless other people' family and let us all grow in our relationship with you. Let us never forget to whom we belong. In Jesus name, Amen!
