

In Our Thoughts & Prayers

Jim Braund as he fights cancer

Our Family Promise guests as they begin new jobs in the upcoming weeks.

Thank you!

Thank you again to the Family Promise volunteers who provided meals, overnight support, and family time for our Family Promise week. We are extremely grateful for all of our volunteers. It was a great week, supporting those who are truly in need.

Thank you as well to our dedicated and talented Sunday school and youth group leaders: Lisa Miller, Jay Jackson, Darcey Bedward, Diane Rabe, Jamie Oliver, Jacki Werner, Ray Pawlisch, Carol Pawlisch, Shawn Melvin, Kook Ho Kim, Irv Case and Sarah Anderson.

A quick thank you to the UMW members who baked, knitted, crafted, slawed, BBQ'd, organized and signed up to make yesterday's annual Apple Festival Bazaar a great event. More notes and information coming soon!

Announcements

Cookies are needed!

Volunteers are needed to supply 4 dozen cookies for the after worship coffee time. There's a sign up sheet in the back or contact the church office.

Christmas with the Elderly Bake Sale

Onni Williams and Tess Kloepping will be holding their annual bake sale at the Bank of Brodhead, Saturday September 28th from 8-noon. All proceeds are used to purchase Christmas gifts for 7 local nursing homes..

Calendar Correction

There is no UMW meeting on Thursday, September 26th. Sorry for any confusion.

RADA Fundraiser for Mission Work

There's still time to order cutlery and kitchen products to support The United Methodist Women local and global mission work! Rada products are 100% American-made and are well known for their quality. They offer a variety of kitchen utensils, cutlery, quick mixes and gift sets. Catalogs are on the table near the church office or you may contact Teresa Hammon or Jo Ann Steuri. Deadline to order is October 1st.

“American Independence” Quilt

The UMW are auctioning a handmade quilt in conjunction with the Apple Festival Bazaar. The quilt, made by Pat Peterson, Janice Davenport, Madison Melvin, Cheyenne Melvin, Vicki Evenson, Diane Rabe and Kathy Anderson, is titled “American Independence” and is available for viewing at the church. It is appx. 88” x 52”.

Bidding will close TODAY at 10:30am

Wednesday Praise Service

Need a mid-week jump-start? Please, feel free to join our Wednesday praise worship service. It’s an intimate, youthful service that includes music, scripture, sermon, and a time of joys and concerns. and encourage people to participate in it!

Family Promise Orientation and Training

What: Family Promise orientation and training for new volunteers or those that would like to know more about Family Promise. Volunteer drivers are also needed and will receive information during this orientation time.

When: Monday, September 23rd, 6:30 - 8 pm

Where: 615 26th St. in Monroe. You will be one of the "first" to see the new Day Center, located on the corner, next to Monroe Furniture Appliance Clearance Center.

Please RSVP by email to directorfpofgc@gmail.com or call the Day Center at (608) 328-2600

Upcoming Events

Office Hours: Monday-Friday, 9am-2pm

Sunday, September 22

15th Sunday after Pentecost

9:00am Worship
10:15am Sunday School--Adult & Youth
AED Training

Tuesday, September 22

6:30pm A Firm Foundation Bible Study

Wednesday, September 23

3:30pm Youth Groups
6:30pm Praise Service

Sunday, September 29

16th Sunday after Pentecost

9am Worship
10:15am Sunday School- Adult & Youth

“A Firm Foundation”

“A Firm Foundation” explores the issues that are dividing The United Methodist Church today. The Sunday classes start today or you can join on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8pm (nine weeks) starting September 24th Irv Case will be leading both studies. There is a sign up sheet in the back of the sanctuary and books are available in the church office.

AED Training

Vicki Evenson will offer a short training on the use of the AED (Automatic External Defibrillator) after worship today in the basement.