OPENING PRAYER

Gracious God, as Jesus entered Jerusalem this day, we ask that you enter our sanctuary. Fill it with your Holy Spirit. May we lay our palms and cloaks before the One who reigns through peace – and invites us to move from the sidelines to the parade itself. We ask this, and all things, in the name of the true King of kings and Lord of lords, Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

*Offertory Prayer

If we could offer you everything, O God, we would. Maybe we can, but we are too afraid: not so much of the cost, but of the commitment! As we stand today and watch the parade of palms, the royal procession into Jerusalem, help us to become even more devoted to Jesus. As we enter this last week of Lent with Christ, may the gifts we bring today enable us to be more resolute in our collective ministry. Bless these gifts and us – we pray in the name of the Risen One. Amen.
