IN MEMORY OF

THEODORE J. WELLS

A Faithful Member of the Church for 66 Years

Pastoral Message to Friends and Church Members:

What is a church? A. L. Ryan tells us that "a church is a group of people who love and follow Jesus Christ, and who band themselves together for worship, and service in His name." Phillip Brooks has dubbed it as "the garden of the Lord." One could hardly hope to improve on either the definition or the metaphor.

But one can take a healthy, wholesome attitude towards what his church really is. After twelve years in the ministry, your pastor is certain that "communion of saints" is not a direct reference to the average local church. Even the "garden of the Lord" has its weeds. Yet, one who allows himself to see the weeds to the exclusion of the glorious and inspiring blooms that are found in every church, needs to have his spiritual eyes examined. Moreover, that one who uses the hypocrites and half-baked ones as excuses for his own conduct and thought, is not worthy of the high and holy name he claims.

For, after all, your job and my job does not concern the other fellow at all. What we do in God's service, and on which side our influence falls,—these are the pressing questions of our day. Edgar Guest has written "My Creed",—lines from which I quote:

"To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;"
"To do my best, and let that stand"
"To live undaunted, unafeard
Of any step that I have made;
To be, without pretense or sham
Exactly what men think I am."

So the message that I would leave with you, knowing full well that you will reread these lines and remember me by them, is that your mission and my mission is, under God, to build our lives as honestly and sincerely, to seek to understand our problems as clearly, to dare to face life and its difficulties as bravely, to dare to die if necessary, but always to live as nobly, as did the One before Whom we bow in common reverence together,—Jesus Christ of Nazareth. And with God be the rest.

Always your friend and pastor,

WENDELL J. CLARK.

A CENTURY OF RELIGIOUS PROGRESS

HISTORY OF CHURCH FOR PAST 100 YEARS

By the light of a sputtering kerosene lamp, some men bent earnestly over a kitchen table to read a legal document which began,—“This is to certify that the male members of the Methodist Episcopal church, residing in Hempstead—”. Thus was the Newbridge church born on “the 11th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.”

Since our space is extremely limited, we must sum up the story of our church in four definite periods. The first follows the immediate founding of the church. The first building, a frame structure thirty by forty feet, soon proved inadequate, and a ten foot addition was built on the north end. Shortly, a vestibule and tower improved the appearance of the front, and a new bell, the gift of Asa Parker, a lawyer in Ridgewood (Wantagh), called the members of the thriving little society to services. Then, “death prevailed at Bellmore”, and only a struggling handful remained.

The second period begins about 1895, when Bellmore, flushed with new strength, breaks away from its partners in the circuit—first East Meadow, and then Seaford—to totter on alone. This growth is short-lived, however, for we Yankees love our own opinions.

In 1901, the line began again to move upward. From thirty-four members in 1901 “including the pastor’s wife”, the roster grew to forty, with 65 in the Sunday school. Then a building fund of $110 appears, and “the financial condition is good.” Under the Rev. William Dalziel the present structure was built. But the next pastor sadly laments, “we had hoped that the friends who disapproved of the new building would return.” The Society for Church Extension granted a loan, and Bellmore struggled on.

After another decade, Bellmore emerged triumphant in 1924 with all debts paid, a condition that she has maintained ever since. A sudden spurt in 1926-28 was followed by a short “recession”. But the rapid growth of Bellmore was beginning to be felt, and, after a short period of recuperation under Rev. W. G. Simonson, the rise of the church began more pronounced under Rev. E. Ralph Wiborg. Each year showed a steady improvement. A new organ was installed, and paid for, through the efforts of the Ladies’ Aid. The sanctuary was remodeled to present its beautiful appearance of today. In 1938 a legacy was made available for the church through the Half estate which nets an income of between $500 and $600 yearly.

The present pastor feels the “lift” of what has gone before. His report to conference repeats the record of fifteen years—no outstanding debts, over $300 has been spent for improvements, twenty-nine new members have come to us, and we have a building fund of $1000. Plans for a new educational unit have been drawn by John H. Tie-meyer, and approved by the Official Board. The immediate future is problematical, but we hope that our Centennial will be more than a celebration of what has been done. God has been good to Bellmore M. E. Church, and to its people. May they meet the challenge of their day, as did our spiritual ancestors the challenge of days gone by.

Congratulatory Messages from Former Pastors and Church Officials

It gives me great pleasure to send a word of congratulation to the Bellmore Methodist Church. It is my earnest hope that this celebration of a hundred years' effort on the part of others who have gone before will be the starting point of a new era of consecrated effort on the part of those whose church it is today. Meanwhile accept my heartiest wishes.

I deeply regret that conference assignments have made it necessary for me so to readjust my schedule that I cannot be with you June 11th. This is a great disappointment to me.

Sincerely,

Bishop Francis J. McConnell

For seven years, Mrs. Wiborg and I had the opportunity and privilege of working with the people of the Bellmore Methodist Church. They were seven happy years, and we shall always treasure and cherish the friendships we made.

The history of the Bellmore Methodist Church through its 100 years has not been the history of a dead, formal organization, but the history of a living, spiritual fellowship serving its members and its community. I still feel, as I felt when in Bellmore, that the Bellmore Methodist fellowship has a large and promising future ahead of it, if it will have the vision and devotion and courage to be the Church and nothing else, that is, "the Body of Christ, that living organism in which His Spirit dwells, through which He speaks to the world, and carries on His work of individual and social redemption". May God grant you that vision and courage and devotion in the days which lie ahead. May He also bless you during these days of your centennial observance.

Sincerely,

(Rev.) E. Ralph Wiborg.

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES

A Centennial celebration is accompanied by many emotions,—sacred memories of those who in the yester-years held high the torch which now lights the path of progress and happiness trod by the living; gratitude to God for His manifest guidance and goodness that has brought us to this shining hour of achievement; and a spirit of self-dedication and high resolves to face the challenging tasks of the future.

Knowing and esteeming the spirit of the Bellmore Church, I am convinced that its pastor and people will mark this centennial, not as a mile-stone of achievement only, but also will make it a stepping stone to still greater and more glorious accomplishments.

Wishing you God's richest blessings in your work,

Yours cordially,

(Rev.) Hubert D. Jones,
Superintendent of Brooklyn South District

"Am glad to have the pleasure of greeting our dear people of Bellmore, as they come to the century mark of Methodism in their beautiful town. May God so manifest His spirit, in your planning and work for this occasion, that the dear old church may show the results of Christ's saving Grace, in the lives of many, through the years to come.

The last years of my active ministry were spent among you. And, God willing, it will be a joy to be with you again at your centenary celebration.

With Christian affection,

(Rev.) G. Whitefield Simonson.

"At this celebration of one hundred years of Christian service to Bellmore, I want to congratulate all of you for so worthy a record. Let us hope that the next one hundred years will be even more fruitful. May God richly bless you as you move forward."

(Rev.) Robert E. Cordell.

"Religion tomorrow will be different from religion yesterday or today. But man cannot escape awareness of a life greater than his own."
