

NABA Church Development Team
Ministerial Education Scholarship Guidelines

- Each year, a minister or ministry of a church may take out scholarship funds from the Church Development Team of no more than $750 for higher education or $300 for conference expense, per budget allowance of the Church Development Team. These funds should be supplemental to what the minister's church can assist. A minister cannot request scholarship funds for both higher education and conference expense.
- The Church Development Team scholarships can only be used for direct expenses, not travel or lodging expenses. Checks will be written directly to the institution or conference.
- The Church Development Team must see written documentation of cost before approval.
- The school or conference must be approved by the Church Development Team for doctrinal purposes.
- Approval for conferences and schooling must be made by the Church Development Team by the team meeting before the semester of study:
 - For conferences/education for the spring semester (January- April), the applicant must submit for approval before the November meeting.
 - For conferences/education for the summer semester (May-August), the applicant must submit for approval before the April meeting.
 - For conferences/education for the fall semester (September-December), the applicant must submit for approval before the August meeting.

The Church Development Team reserves the right to deny scholarship funds for reasons of budget, doctrine, or any other reason deemed necessary by the team. Written approval/denial will be provided to the applicant following the approval process.
