

“He Still Moves Stones”

1 Corinthians 15:1-8

David Owens

4.12.09

Introduction:

- A. Today is the _____th anniversary of the Resurrection.
- B. I believe the resurrection of Jesus is so compelling, because it confirms the ultimate _____ of God, and enables us to have _____ and _____.
- C. Each of us are on a _____ from here to _____.
- D. Today we will be looking at three stories that will _____ our _____ in the God who moved the stone, who is the God who still moves stones.

I. The Story of the Death of a _____ (Lk. 7:11-17)

- A. What happened? “The _____ man _____ and began to _____.”
- B. When _____ shows up, you never know what might happen.

II. The Story of the Death of a _____ (Jn. 11:1-44)

- A. What happened? “The _____ man _____.”
- B. Dead men don’t come back to _____, unless Jesus _____ them to.

III. The Story of the Death of the _____ (Mt. 27:57-28:10)

- A. What happened? The angel said, “He has _____.”
- B. God moved the _____, and God brought his _____ back to _____.

Conclusion:

- A. God is at His _____ when life is at its _____.
- B. God is the God of the _____ and the God of _____.
- C. There are stones that _____, _____, _____ in our paths.
- D. Whatever stone it is, it is no _____ for God.
- E. Our God is a God who still _____.
- F. Don’t you think it is time to _____ your _____ over to God?

Answer Key: Intro. A. 1976. B. power, faith, hope. C. journey, eternity. D. bolster, faith. I. Son. I.A. dead, sat, up, talk. I.B. Jesus. II. Friend. II.A. Dead, came, out. II.B. life, commands. III. Savior. III.A. Risen. III.B. stone, Son, life. Concl.A. best, worst. B. impossible, surprises. C. trip, trouble, trap. D. match. E. moves, stones. F. turn, life.