

“Riding Out The Storm”

David Owens

Proverbs 6:20-32

5/31/09

Introduction:

- A. There is no pain harder to bear than _____ difficulty.
- B. Sometimes troubles in the home can be traced directly back to the _____ of the fathers, mothers, or children, but other times they cannot.
- C. In king David’s case, the _____ he and his family were about to experience was the direct result of his _____.
- D. A distinction must be made between the _____ of sin and the _____ of the consequences for sin.

I. The Story—The Consequences that Resulted from David’s Sin (2 Samuel 12-18)

- A. Consequence #1—The _____ of Bathsheba’s _____ (12:15-19)
- B. Consequence #2—A Son of David _____ a Daughter of David (13:1-16)
- C. Consequence #3—A Son of David _____ and then _____ another Son of David (13:20-29)
- D. Consequence #4—A Son of David Leads a _____ Against His Father (13:34-15:16)
- E. Consequence #5—David’s Son _____ is _____ (18:9-15; 32-33)

II. The Application—How to Handle the Consequences and Ride Out the Storm

- A. David _____, _____, and _____.
- B. David put his _____ in the _____ of God’s _____.
- C. David moved _____ with _____.

Conclusion:

- A. Riding out the storm is a...
 - 1. _____ experience.
 - 2. _____ experience.
 - 3. _____ experience.
 - 4. _____ experience.
- B. The story of Horatio and Anna _____.

Answer Key: Intro.: A. domestic. B. sins. C. storm, sin. D. forgiveness, removal. I.A. death, baby. I.B. raped. I.C. hates, kills. I.D. conspiracy. I.E. Absalom, executed. II.A. prayed, fasted, worshiped. II.B. hope, truths, Word. II.C. forward, life. Concl.A.1. lonely. A.2. learning. A.3. humbling. A.4. temporary. B. Spafford.