

“Choices Have Consequences”

David Owens

2 Thessalonians 1:3-12

5.27.12

Introduction:

- A. Life is all about the _____ we _____.
- B. The letter we call 1 Thessalonians gave them some _____ and answered some questions, but didn't solve all their _____.
- C. In response to their situation, Paul immediately wrote a _____ letter.

I. The Encouragement of _____.

- A. Their _____ was growing.
- B. Their _____ was increasing.
- C. Their _____ was enduring.

II. The Encouragement of _____.

- A. God's _____ are right.
- B. _____ for the _____.
- C. _____ for the _____.

III. The Encouragement of _____.

- A. Count us _____ of His _____.
- B. Fulfill every good _____.
- C. Jesus may be _____ in _____.

Conclusion:

- A. A characteristic of our modern consumer culture is _____.
- B. When it comes to choices about _____ there is an amazing variety of choices.
- C. Just like with the assorted kinds of soap to choose from, it's easy to think that the _____ choices we make are inconsequential (Mt. 7:21-23).
- D. Because choices have consequences, we must choose _____.

Answer Key: Intro. A. choices, make. B. encouragement, problems. C. second. I. Praise. I.A. faith. I.B. love. I.C. perseverance. II. Promise. II.A. judgments. II.B. Reward, faithful. II.C. punishment, wicked. III. Prayer. III.A. worthy, calling. III.B. purpose. III.C. glorified, us. Concl.A. choice. B. spiritual, things. C. spiritual. D. wisely.