A. In some respects, preparing and preaching sermons about being thankful are easy to develop and ________, but one of the hardest ones to put into ________.

B. God wants His people to be ______________ people. (1 Thess. 5:16)

C. That which God ____________, God ____________.

D. I believe that regardless of the situation, there is always something about the ____________, and even something about the ____________ for which we can be grateful.

E. Sometimes all that is required is a different ____________.

F. Often times, we are ungrateful because we are focusing on what we ________ have, rather than what we ______ have.

G. We would benefit from singing the old song “__________ Your _____________.”

H. Sometimes it is the difficult situations that turn out to be a blessing because they become God’s way of ____________ what we need or the way of ____________ us to become what we should be.

I. What a _____________ a thankful spirit makes.

J. Someone has said, “Gratitude is a vaccine, an antitoxin, and an antiseptic.” (John Henry Jowett)
   1. A vaccine against ________________.
   2. An antitoxin against _________________.
   3. An antiseptic against _________________.

K. would encourage us to spend a few minutes each day counting our blessings:
   1. Thank God for being ____________.
   2. Thank God for the ____________ things and experiences.
   3. Thank God for the ____________ and ____________ things.
   4. Thank God for being our _____________.

L. How to Develop an Attitude of Gratitude:
   1. Remember how much gratitude ____________ ________.
   2. Avoid ____________ at all costs.
   3. Make a choice to _____________.
   4. Develop the daily discipline of ____________ _____________.