"Living By The Spirit"
David Owens
Romans 8:1-12
10/6/19

Introduction:
A. If we live according to the ___________, that’s ___________!
B. Romans 8 has been called the “inner ___________ of the ___________ of the Christian faith.”
C. As we move through verses 1-13, Paul challenges us to ask ourselves three questions.

I. Where is Our _____________?
A. If we have _______ and _______ Christ as our Savior, then we have been declared right with God.
B. The law of the Spirit of life is _______ _________ than the law of sin and death.
C. Illustration: The law of ____________ and the law of ____________.
D. There is no condemnation for us because of what Jesus _____ ______, not what we do for ourselves.

II. Where is Our _____________?
A. Paul describes two very different _____________.
B. These verses raise fundamental questions: how are we ___________ our minds? What are we ___________ them to? What are we ___________ in them?
C. Before we can have the right spiritual mindset, we have to have a change in ________ (John 3:3-8).
D. What is it that sets us apart from the unsaved? The ________ _________ in us.

III. Where is Our _____________?
A. How does the Holy Spirit work? Consider the illustration of a ________ ________.
B. Consider the tension between the ____________ of what God gives us, and the ________ of what we must do.
C. Juxtaposition verses 1 and 13.
D. Security without responsibility breeds ____________, but responsibility without security leads to _________.
E. We need to put _____ to ________ in our lives, but it is only possible to do so through the ________ who ________ in us.
F. God’s _________ can make us what we _________ to be!