

“A Call to Real Christian Community”

Acts 2:42-47

David Owens

9/13/09

- A. This story illustrates a sense of _____ that we don't see as much as we used to.
- B. A number of years ago some churches allowed themselves to be _____.
1. The great majority of church members admitted that they knew a _____ percentage of the people.
 2. The most disturbing thing of all was the fact that many of those who were questioned expressed _____ interest in becoming _____ involved in the lives of other members.
- C. Relationships in the church are absolutely _____.
- D. Basically, fellowship means a _____ participation with _____.
- E. I like to think of the church as a _____ with many _____, and each of the _____ depend on the others.
- F. Many of us realize that experiencing real Christian community is _____ even when we are _____ to make it happen.
- G. Why is real Christian community so _____?
1. Each of us _____ it for _____.
 2. It will _____ others to _____.
- H. New Sermon Series: _____
- I. The New Testament writers frequently used the Greek word allelon to describe this mutual and reciprocal process. It is usually translated “_____.”
- J. Foundational to all meaningful Christian action is _____.
1. The other “one another” passages we will be studying actually describe _____ in _____.

Answer Key: A. community. B. analyzed. B.1. very, small. B.2. little, more. C. indispensable. D. common, others. E. chain, links, links. F. difficult, trying. G. important. G.1. need, survival. G.2. draw, Christ. H. Real, Christian, Community. I. one, another. J. love. J.1. love, action.