Paul's Letter to the Romans: Pursuing Righteousness from God

“The Cure for Conflict” (Pt. 3)

Romans 15:7-9

A. I don’t like ___________, how about you?
B. It seems to me that I could get along with everyone much easier if everyone was more ________ me and ____________ like me, don’t you think?
C. Paul identifies himself with the ___________ by using the first person ____________.
D. The mature in Christ understand that the main goal is to do what is _______ for ____________.
E. A mature attitude mimics the example of ____________ who did not seek to please ____________.
F. The Old Testament is written for our ____________ so we can have ________
   1. The example of others who endured and remained faithful helps us ____________.
   2. The OT gives us encouragement as we witness God’s ____________.
G. Paul prays that God will grant them the ability to live in ____________.
H. Paul was praying that they may possess a unity of ____________ that transcends their ____________.
I. Accept one another means more than ____________ it means to ____________.
J. In 15:8-9, Paul summaries the key theological teaching of his letter—how the fulfillment of God’s promises in the gospel brings blessings to ____________ and ____________.
K. Paul supports that conclusion with a series of quotations from ________ sections of the Jewish Scriptures: ________, ________ and ________.
L. Paul concludes the section with a ________________.
M. Things we can do to avoid ____________ and bring ________:
   1. Make it our goal to ____________ with one another. (15:1)
   2. Make it our goal to ____________ others. (15:2-3)
      a. The story of the man, boy and ____________.
   3. Make it our goal to ____________ one another. (15:7)
   4. Make it our goal to live in ____________ with one another (15:5)