

Paul's Letter to the Romans: Pursuing Righteousness from God
"The Cure for Conflict" (Pt. 3)

David Owens

Romans 15:7-9

3/8/20

- A. I don't like _____, how about you?
- B. It seems to me that I could get along with everyone much easier if everyone was more _____ me and _____ like me, don't you think?
- C. Paul identifies himself with the _____ by using the first person _____.
- D. The mature in Christ understand that the main goal is to do what is _____ for _____.
- E. A mature attitude mimics the example of _____ who did not seek to please _____.
- F. The Old Testament is written for our _____ so we can have _____.
1. The example of others who endured and remained faithful helps us _____.
2. The OT gives us encouragement as we witness God's _____.
- G. Paul prays that God will grant them the ability to live in _____.
- H. Paul was praying that they may possess a unity of _____ that transcends their _____.
- I. Accept one another means more than _____ it means to _____.
- J. In 15:8-9, Paul summaries the key theological teaching of his letter—how the fulfillment of God's promises in the gospel brings blessings to _____ and _____.
- K. Paul supports that conclusion with a series of quotations from _____ sections of the Jewish Scriptures: _____, _____ and _____.
- L. Paul concludes the section with a _____.
- M. Things we can do to avoid _____ and bring _____:
1. Make it our goal to _____ with one another. (15:1)
2. Make it our goal to _____ others. (15:2-3)
a. The story of the man, boy and _____.
3. Make it our goal to _____ one another. (15:7)
4. Make it our goal to live in _____ with one another (15:5)

Answer Key: A. Conflict. B. like, thought. C. strong, plural. D. best, others. E. Jesus, himself. F. instruction, hope. F.1. persevere. F.2. faithfulness. G. harmony. H. purpose, differences. I. tolerate, welcome. J. Jews, Gentiles. K. three, Torah, Prophets, Writings. L. Prayer. M. conflict, unity. M.1. bear. M.2. please. M.2.a. donkey. M.3. accept. M.4. harmony.