

Becoming God's Follower and Leader - A Study of the Life of Moses
"Burning Bushes and Second Chances" David Owens
2 Corinthians 1:8-9; 4:7 6.5.11

Introduction:

- A. At age 40, Moses experienced his major, life-shattering _____, and ran into the _____ to escape the consequences.
- B. I'm sure Moses felt he messed up so much that _____ would never call on him again for any major _____, but he was so _____.
- C. God specializes in working with those who have made major _____.
- D. Here are some of the imperfect people God has worked with: _____, _____, _____, and _____.
- E. We are but _____ of _____, but it is not the pot that matters, but it is what _____ the pot that matters.

I. The Story

- A. Without a hint of warning, God speaks to ordinary _____ on ordinary _____.
- B. The bush wasn't different or remarkable, but what was _____ to it certainly was different and remarkable.
- C. God didn't speak to Moses until Moses stepped _____ from his shepherding and moved _____ the event that captured his attention.
- D. What made the ground _____? The _____ of _____.
- E. God identified himself as the God of _____, _____ and _____.
- F. If you have ever doubted the _____ of God for his _____, then read Exodus 3:7-10 over and over until you are convinced otherwise.
- G. God ordered Moses: "I am sending you to _____ to bring my people out of _____."

II. The Application

- A. We learn to _____ when God _____.

- B. We learn that _____ isn't fatal or _____.

Answer Key: Intro. A. failure, desert. B. God, assignment, wrong. C. mistakes. D. Abraham, David, Jonah, Rahab, Peter. E. jars, clay, fills. I.A. people, days. I.B. happening. I.C. away, toward. I.D. holy, presence, God. I.E. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob. I.F. heart, own. I.G. Pharaoh, Egypt. II.A. pay, attention, calls. II.B. failure, final.