"Living Like There’s No Tomorrow"
David Owens
1 Peter 4:7-11
2.06.11

Introduction:
A. The Super Bowl is a _____ minute game, but the urgency to take the lead only gets _______ as the end of the game approaches.
B. It’s that kind of urgency that I want us to sense with regard to our _______ lives.
C. Consider the statements of urgency in the New Testament (Rom. 13:12; James 5:8; 1 Jn. 2:18; Rev. 1:3, 22:20)
D. Those who live with a sense of urgency have...

I. A Militant Attitude Toward _______. (4:1-3)
A. We should consider ourselves “_______” to sin - finished with it.
B. Now that we are dead to sin, we can focus on living the _____ of _______.

II. A Patient Attitude Toward the _______. (4:4-6)
A. When a person goes through a dramatic _________ from a life of sin, their former companions just don’t ________.
B. A dramatic life-change often draws _________, but as the passing of time verifies the change, ridicule turns to ________.
C. Although they may _________ us, one day God will ________ them.

III. An Expectant Attitude Toward the _______. (4:7)
A. We should live with the thought that we are in the ___ minute warning.
B. The Christian’s mind must be clearly fixed on spiritual ________ and righteous ________.

IV. A Fervent Attitude Toward _______. (4:8-11)
A. Our Christian love should not only be ________, and forgiving, but it should also be ________.
B. Living and serving with a sense of urgency means that we want to be busy doing God’s will whenever He ________.

Conclusion:
A. We have to watch out for spiritual “false - ________”.
B. We must _____ like today is our last opportunity to reach the ______.