Introduction:

- A. Many people don't make the real Christmas connection between the Jesus of the _____ and the Jesus of the _____.
- B. It's hard in our commercialized and secularized age of Christmas to make any Christmas connection with _____.
- C. Because of these things, we might be tempted to _____ Christmas.
- D. As this Christmas arrives, perhaps we need, not just a _____ Christmas, but a _____.

I. Because we were _____, God came _____ for us.
(John 1:1-2, 6-12, 14, 18)

II. Because we feel _____, God _____ us and show us the extent of His _____. (John 3:16; Romans 5:5-8; 1 John 4:10)

III. Because we feel so _____, God is _____ us.
(Matthew 1:18-23; Hebrews 13:5)

IV. Because we feel _____, God can do _____.
(Luke 1:36-37; Ephesians 3:20-21)

V. Because it seems everything is a _____, God keeps His _____.
(Isaiah 7:14, 9:6; Luke 2:25-32)

VI. Because we cannot _____ ourselves, Jesus is our _____.
(Luke 2:10-11; 2 Peter 3:9)
