

If you wish to be as close as possible to God, pray this dangerous prayer:

Christ, come into me. Be Lord over my life, over everything about me. Fulfill your will in me today, and have me realize You are doing so. Anoint me to repairing the breach between God and Humanity, with you. You are in me, and I am in You. As you are real, show me in a way that I'll understand and see that it is You. Amen.
