A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some

The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude

So Home

We delivered 70 food baskets this year and hastily made up 10 additional boxes. All were received with great appreciation and many thanks. Thank you to our church family and friends that contributed to this successful mission. Happy Holidays and thank you again.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Food for Thought in the New Year

- 1. Don't look back. Look ahead with hope.
- 2. The object of a New Year is not that we have a new year it is that we have a new soul.
- 3. Instead of making a New Year's resolution commit to read your Bible more.
- 4. Reach for the new. What lies behind you is not nearly as important as what lies in front of you.
- 5. Give glory to God who on that immortal night reached gently down to lay His Supreme Gift, upon the hay.
- 6. God will direct our pathway to a Happy New Year. If we depend on Him, He will make us useful and show us how to make the earth better.
- 7. Faith is rooted in renewal not in resolutions. Christ can make you new if you decide for Him.
- 8. Love is a fruit that is in season all the time.

The priest told him that this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to his collar insert and asked, "Does that hurt?" The priest removed the collar insert and showed it to the boy. The boy felt letters embossed on the inside. The priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes, I do!" said the small boy who was not old enough to read. "It says kills ticks and fleas for up to 6 months!"

NOT AFRAID

A few minutes before the church services started, the townspeople were sitting in their pews and talking. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the old man and said, "Don't you know who I am?"

The man replied, "Yep, sure do."

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Satan asked.

"Nope, sure ain't." said the man.

"Don't you realize I can kill you with a word?" asked Satan.

"Don't doubt it for a minute," returned the old man, in an even tone.

"Did you know that I could cause you profound, horrifying, physical AGONY for all eternity?" persisted Satan.

"Yep," was the calm reply.

"And you're still not afraid?" asked Satan.

"Nope."

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, "Well, why aren't you afraid of me?"

The man calmly replied, "Been married to your sister for over 48 years."

Hopefully you have started the New Year with a smile.

Happy New Year Everyone!

A Message from Pastor Shue

I hope that this newsletter finds each of you warm and safe. I also hope you plan on taking it easy for this New Year's Eve Celebration that will be taking place in just a few days. My belief is that 2021 has to be better than 2020 was. I pray that each of you will be blessed with stronger faith and renewed desire to do the Father God's work. Each of us really needs to sit down and do some reflecting on where we are in life and where we need to be. It is my belief that far too many of us settle for what we have in life instead of listening to the Father God and working for the very best in life. The father God wants only the best for His good and faithful servants. As long as we can stay on a righteous path nothing is impossible. It is trying times like these that we must live our faith. As we start this new year let us look to the future with gladness and joy. We are so truly blessed with so much in our lives.

I don't believe in New Year's resolutions. However, this year I am going to make one. I'm going to be a more resourceful pastor this year. I'm not going to be overwhelmed by all the negative things going around me in the world. I'm going to keep my eye on the work I am doing for the Father God and not on all the craziness going on around me. I will do a better job building the kingdom of God and less time trying to figure out why things are not going as well and I would like. I will remember that God is always faithful to those who serve Him.

I hope everyone has a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ, Pastor Claude
