A Message from Pastor Shue

As most of you know I will be leaving on my 2020 Mission Trip to Santa Emilia, Nicaragua next Wednesday the 19th of February.

I'm very excited about going this year as I am each year. We will be working on the village water project again this year. The importance of clean drinking water for the health of the young children is central to why we go each year. If we can save the family of even one child from the heartbreak of burying their child, then it is worth the time and money we have invested in the village. So very often in developing countries simple health problems can very quickly become serious medical problems.

As always I will be taking a second suitcase filled with school supplies. If you would like to bring some school supplies, I would encourage you to get boxes of colored pencils or colored markers. If you would rather not go to the trouble of shopping, then it would be great if you would donate some cash so I can buy school supplies in country. Either way I would like to thank each of you for your generosity and support in this very worthwhile mission. When I return from Nicaragua we will be having a church dinner some Sunday in March so I can talk about all that we were able to accomplish during our time there and to start raising money for future projects.

I believe that working with those both here in our local community as well as the greater world community we can show those in need that we care about them and more importantly that God loves each of them and cares deeply about each and every one of His children. Going on a Mission trip helps me feel centered and gives me purpose in my ministry.

I hope each of you have a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ,

Pastor Claude

You Are My Love

I am your parent; you are my child.
 I am your quiet place; you are my wild.
 I am your clam face; you are my giggle.
 I am your wait; you are my wiggle.
 I am your carriage ride; you are my king.
 I am your push; you are my swing.
 I am your audience; you are my clown.
 I am your Long Bridge; you are my falling down.
 I am your carrot sticks; you are my licorice.
 I am your dandelion; you are my first wish.
 I am your water wings; you are my deep.
 I am your open arms; you are my running leap.
 I am your way home; you are my new path.
 I am your dry towel; you are my bath.
 I am your dinner; you are my chocolate cake.
 I am your bedtime; you are my wide awake.
 I am your finish line; you are my race.
 I am your praying hands; you are my saving grace.
 I am your favorite book; you are my new lines.
 I am your night light; you are my star shine.
 I am your lullaby; you are my peekaboo.
 I am your good-night kiss; you are my I love you.

Congratulations Todd & Andrea Harrelson!

Easton Oliver Harrelson was born February 06, 2020. He came a bit earlier than was expected. Weighing in at 4 lbs. and 11 oz. he joins his proud big brothers Aiden and Connor. Both mom and baby are doing fine and will be coming home as soon as he gains a little more weight.

Happy
 Valentine's
 Day

Love:

Love is as warm among peasants as it is among kings.

Love always believes in miracles.

Nothing is so empty as a life without love.

The best interpreter of the love of God is love for man.

There is a love that never fails when earthly love fails.

Love is more than words; real love will show by giving.

To be loved is better than to be famous.

Love will endure when you keep it pure.

On occasion put your love in a mailbox.

To show your love for God, live for God.

Love encourages as it corrects and gives hope as it reproves.

The way to love anything or anybody is to realize that it could be lost.

Colors of Love

Imagine a rainbow
Of black and white,
A moonless sky
On a starless night...

Picture a sunrise,
A colorless sun,
Pale autumn leaves
When summer is done...

Envision a garden
Dreary and gray,
Lackluster roses in
A bridal bouquet...

How faded and dismal
God's earth would be
Without any colors
For our eyes to see!

He paints us a rainbow
After each storm,
Flowers in springtime
When the earth is warm...

And there on His canvas
In Heaven above,
He paints every sunrise
With colors of Love!
