A Message from Pastor Shue

This has been one of the most unusual months of June that I can ever remember. This past week when Brendon and I were at camp it was cool enough for him and many others to wear long pants and a jacket, especially in the mornings. Most years when I'm at camp it is hot and muggy. I'm usually sweating and wishing for cooler weather, but not so this year. The weather was just about perfect although the water in the pool was a little cold when you first got in. On the last night we had a late night swim which started at 7:45 p.m. and was to last about an hour. I believe I lasted about 20 minutes and Brendon lasted a little longer. It was just a little too cool for us, and most of the other young people got out as well long before the hour was up. The weather could not have been any more enjoyable as far as I was concerned. We had a great group of young people and the group of counselors was easy to get along with as well as working really well with the children.

Mary and I will be gone from the 16th of July thru the 23rd of July. It will be kind of a working vacation. We will be attending the National Rally for Covenant Motorcycle Ministry in Cherokee, North Carolina. Mike has agreed to cover the pulpit for me on the 21st of July. I'm looking forward to seeing that part of the country again. It has been 20 years or so since we were there last.

I hope each of you have a truly blessed week.

Your Servant in Christ,

Pastor Claude

The Origins of Flag Day

That the flag of the United States shall Be of thirteen stripes of alternate red and white, with a union of thirteen stars of white in a blue field, representing the new constellation.

This was the resolution adopted by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777. This resolution was adopted following a report of a special committee which was assigned the task of designing a flag.

Observance of the adoption of the flag was not soon in coming. Even though a flag of this design was carried into battle September 11, 1777 most claims to the first official observance of Flag Day took place more than a century after the design was adopted in 1777.

In 1897 the governor of New York ordered the displaying of the flag over all public buildings in the state. It soon caught on.

Flag Day has a nation wide observance, but to this day Pennsylvania is the only state to recognize Flag Day as a legal holiday.

Both President Wilson, in 1916 and President Coolidge, in 1927 issued proclamations asking for June 14 to be observed as National Flag Day. August 3, 1949 Congress finally approved the national observance, and President Harry Truman signed it into law.

Flag of the Free

Look at the flag as it floats on high
Streaming aloft in the clear, blue sky
Rippling, leaping, tugging away,
Bright as the sunshine, clear as the day,
Throbbing with life, where the world may see-
Flag of our country, flag of the free!
What do we see in the flag on high,
That we bare our heads as it passes by,
That we thrill with pride, our hearts beat fast,
And we cheer and cheer as the flag goes past-
The flag that waves for you and me-
Flag of our country, flag of the free?

We see in the flag a nations might.
The pledge of a safe day and night,
Of watchful eye and powerful arm
That guard the nation's homes from harm.
Of strong defense on land and sea-
Flag of our country, flag of the free!
We see in the flag a union grand,
A brotherhood of heart and hand,
A pledge of love a stirring call
To live our lives, for the good of us all-
Helpful and just and true to thee,
Flag of our country, flag of the free!

Flutter, dear flag, o'er the lands and seas!
Fling out your stars and stripes in the breeze
Righting all wrongs, dispelling all fear,
Guarding the land we cherish so dear,
And the God of our fathers, abiding with thee,
Will bless you and trust you, O flag of the free!

Coffee Cups

A group of alumni, highly established in their careers, got together to visit their old university professor. The conversation soon turned into complaints about stress and work life. Offering his guests coffee, the professor went to the kitchen and returned with a large pot of coffee and an assortment of cups, (crystal, porcelain, plastic, glass, some plain looking, some expensive, some exquisit) telling them to help themselves to the coffee.

When all of them had a cup of coffee in hand, the professor said, "If you noticed, all the nice looking, expensive cups were taken first, leaving the plain and cheap ones behind. While it is normal for you to want only the best for yourselves, that is the source of your problems and stress. The cup adds no quality to the coffee. In most cases the expensive ones hide what we drink. What you all really wanted was the coffee, but you unconsciously went for the best cups...and then you began eyeing each other's cups.

Now consider life is the coffee. The jobs, money, and positions in society are the cups. They are just tools to hold and contain life, and the cup we have does not define, nor change the quality of life we live.

Sometimes, by concentrating on only the cup, we fail to enjoy the coffee God has given us. God brews the coffee, not the cups...enjoy your coffee!

The Difference Between...

Reputation & Character

Character is the one thing we make in this world we take with us to the next. The circumstances amid which you live determine your reputation; the truth you believe determines your character.

Reputation is what you are supposed to be; character is what you are.

Reputaion comes from without; character grows up from within.

Reputation is what you have when you come to a new community; character is what you have when you go away.

Reputation is made in a moment; character is built over a lifetime. Your reputaion is earned in an hour; your character won't come to light for at least a year.

Reputation grows like a mushroom; character grows like an oak.

A single newspaper report gives you your reputation; a life of toil gives you your character.

Reputation makes you rich or poor; character makes you happy or miserable.

Reputation is what is put on your tombstone; character is what angels say about you before the throne of God.
