103		Framed Linotype Print: Sparrows by Chris Charles Chris Charles is a printer, designer and teacher, living in Rochester, NY. She started her business, Moon Rabbit Press in 2010, which specializes fine-art printmaking. Chris's process combines traditional linocut and letterpress printing techniques with experimental materials and applications. Inspiration comes from what surrounds her, whether it's her collection of mid-century objects, or the bird feeder outside her studio window. Her subjects are then rendered into simple, bold forms, and often feature a healthy sense of humor. More of her work can be seen at her website: https://moonrabbitpress.com/	Chris Charles	$115
