

THE JUDGES

Lesson One Personal Study

Applying This Week's Study

Download and study the verses and links that expand this week's study

Keep your eyes open for ways you are becoming too friendly with the thinking of non-believers around you and explore ways you can have more resolve to not be of the world, while still being a light to those around you.

Seek to “see” God’s working in your own life and be proactive in sharing that real experience with others.

Next Week's Study Chapter 2-3

Look for the cycle that Israel would repeat throughout their history

Read through the stories of the first three Judges (Warning! One is not for the faint of heart)
