Prelude

Call to Worship

Liturgist: This is the place for connection and growth, for community and hope. In this place we can ask questions like, “Where are you from?” and, “What do you need?” And reach out to one another saying: “I’ve been thinking of you,” and, “I’ve been meaning to ask. . .” Because the world needs more places where we can ask each other questions that matter and where we can answer one another honestly and with love.

People: This is the place for such questions because all belong here. All are welcome here. All hurt and joy, needs and prayers, dreams and love, are welcome here. God is near. Let us worship Holy God.

Opening Prayer

Liturgist: God of all time and all seasons, come to us quickly.
Come to us with loud praise and joy,
or appear to us in a still, small voice.
Come to us through friends,
or come to us through strangers.
Come to us in words and music and art in this hour of worship.
Come to us quickly if you can.
We are seeking you.
We are always seeking you.
With grateful hearts cracked open by love, we pray. Amen.

Opening Hymn

“What A Covenant”

Invitation to Confession

Liturgist: If we were to call the prayer of confession by another name, we might call it a moment for truth telling—A moment to pause, to reflect, to be honest about the places we want to grow and the way we need God’s help. Family of faith, there is power in honesty. So let us pray, first with a moment of silence, because we worship a loving and gracious God. (A chime calls us to a moment of silence.)

Prayer of Confession

People: Gracious God, when it comes to our relationships we so desperately long to say the right thing, to do the right thing, to find the right solution when someone has a problem that sometimes we overstep the line.

Moment of Silence

Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer

(You are welcome to pray using the words below, or whatever words or version of this prayer is the most meaningful to you.)

Our Creator in heaven, hallowed be Your name.
Your realm come, Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For Yours is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer Response

"Come Let Us Join With Faithful Souls"

Offertory Invitation

Liturgist: Each week in our worship service you are invited to give to the mission and ministry of this church. When you give, you are not only supporting this congregation, but you are offering care to the broader community—leaning in, asking the hard questions, choosing connection, choosing generosity. It is these small acts of care, connection, and love that with time can help heal the hurt in the world. Let us give with grateful hearts.

Offertory Prayer

People: Holy One, in giving this offering we declare that you are worthy of our gifts and that in giving to you we are giving back to this church community and we are also giving to strangers whom we have never met. In worship, when we give to the offering, we are declaring that all of creation deserves love and care, which is a radical notion in this hurting world. So today, as a way to practice being in relationship and drawing closer to one another, we offer you these gifts. Use them in service of the mission and ministry of this church and your wider Realm. Amen.
