Welcome & Announcements

Prelude

Call to Worship

Liturgist: We wait in the darkness, expectantly, longingly, anxiously, thoughtfully.
The darkness is our friend.

People: In the darkness of the womb, we have all been nurtured and protected. In the darkness of the womb the Christ-child was made ready for the journey into light.

Liturgist: It is only in the darkness that we can see the splendor of the universe – blankets of stars, the solitary glowing of the planets. It was the darkness that allowed the Magi to find the star that guided them to where the Christ-child lay.

People: In the darkness of the night, desert people find relief from the cruel relentless heat of the sun. In the blessed desert darkness Mary and Joseph were able to flee with the infant Jesus to safety in Egypt.

Liturgist: In the darkness of sleep, we are soothed and restored, healed and renewed. In the darkness of sleep, dreams rise up.

People: God spoke to Joseph and the wise men through dreams. God is speaking still.

Liturgist: Sometimes in the solitude of the darkness our fears and concerns, our hopes and visions rise to the surface.

People: We come face to face with ourselves and with the road that lies ahead of us. And in that same darkness we find companionship for the journey.

Liturgist: In that same darkness we sometimes allow ourselves to wonder and worry whether the human race is going to survive. And then, in the darkness we know that you are with us, O God, yet still we await your coming.

People: In the darkness that contains both our hopelessness and our hope, we watch for a sign of God's hope. For you are with us, O God, in darkness and in light.

Advent Wreath Lighting Prayer

Reader: Holy One, we thank you for the glimpses we catch of your gift of peace on earth. Even in the midst of fear, of challenge, of struggle—even when we aren't sure that goodwill among us can be found, ignite the flame of peace within us, that we might glow with its brilliance from the inside out. Help us face the pain of life and embrace the assurance that light is already here, and always coming. Amen.

You are invited to light all four candles on your Advent Wreath at home. If you don't have an Advent Wreath simply light any four candles you have.

Invitation to Confession

Liturgist: In this season of Advent, we are reminded of God's love for us, shown in the impossible act of God becoming incarnate, taking on human flesh, to reach us in love and remind us of how to live together with peace. This is the God to whom we pray, to whom we make our confession. Let us then come to God with the truth of our lives, first in silent prayer. (A chime calls us to a moment of silence.)

Prayer of Confession

People: We need your peace, Jesus. We confess that our hearts are too often filled with wonder of a different kind: wondering when the bills will be paid, when the terror will stop, when rest will come. Will it ever? Is the message still true? In a world where worry, not peace, prevails, stir up that good news again. Never have we needed your joy and peace more than now. You've promised rest for the weary, victory for the battle-scarred fighters for justice, peace for the anxious, and acceptance for the broken hearted—not just at Advent, but every day of every year. Your name is still called "Wonderful," "Counselor," "The Mighty God," and "The Prince of Peace." We know that peace on earth can only come when hearts find peace with you. Be our joy. Be our peace, this Christmas and always. Amen.

Words of Assurance

Liturgist: God is good! God is faithful! God is merciful! And God comes to us, in vulnerability, again and again, to show us how much we are loved. We are forgiven; we are freed, we are beloved; we are blessed. Thanks be to God!

Passing of the Peace

(We will drop out of the powerpoint and unmute you. You are encouraged to wave, say Christ's peace aloud, and/or write your offering of peace to all in the chat.)

Hymn

"Awake! Awake, and Greet the New Morn"

107 v.1, 2 & 4

Awake! Awake and greet the new morn,
for angels herald its dawning,
sing out your joy, for Jesus is born,

behold! the Child of our longing.
Come as a baby weak and poor,
to bring all hearts together,
to open wide the heavenly door,
and lives now inside us forever.

To us, to all in sorrow and fear,
Emmanuel comes a-singing,
whose humble song is quiet and near,
yet fills the earth with its ringing.
Music to heal the broken soul
and hymns of loving kindness, the thunder of the anthems roll to shatter all hate and injustice.

Rejoice, rejoice, take heart in the night,
though cold the winter and cheerless,
the rising sun shall crown you with light,
be strong and loving and fearless;
Love be our song and love our prayer,
and love, our endless story,
may God fill every day we share,
and bring us at last into glory.

Our Creator in heaven,
hallowed be Your name.
Your realm come, Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For Yours is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer Response

"Come, O Long Expected Jesus"

#122 v. 1 & 2

Come, O long expected Jesus, born to set all people free.
From our fears and sins release us; grant us your true liberty.

Israel's strength and consolation, hope to all the earth impart;
Dear desire of every nation, enter every longing heart.

Offertory Invitation

Liturgist: We believe that even when we are discouraged giving out of our abundance and raising our voices for justice will offer us hope. We believe that even though this year has been a struggle grounding ourselves in gratitude and generosity reminds of what is good. We believe that even though our gifts are nowhere near enough to fix the problems of this world, God can multiply them together until they are enough.

Offertory Prayer

People: Holy One, this Advent season we wait in peace, and we give in peace. A peace deeper than our anxiety and fear. A peace growing from our trust in your loving power. Receive these generous offerings, and use them to bring your peace to our world. Amen.

Luminaria for Advent - A Church Wide Art Project

While we can't be together in person this Christmas and Advent we can still create together. We're asking people to make a luminaria as part of their Christmas preparations and take pictures of them and send them to HollyRJackson@gmail.com. Then they will be used in worship. Directions for how to make a luminaria are attached to this Spirit News. If you need bags or candles for the bags please email HollyRJackson@gmail.com and we will get them out to you.

Do You Have a Story About Your 2020 Star Word?

On Sunday, January 3rd, we will celebrate Epiphany and receive our new Star Words for 2021. (These will be mailed to you. If you want a Star Word and we don't have your mailing address, please get it to us so we can mail one to you.) If you have a story about your 2020 Star Word and you are willing to share it with the congregation please let Holly know -email HollyRJackson@gmail.com. You can share live on Zoom, send in a video you make, share a picture, or write a short paragraph to be shared in worship. This has become a beloved tradition at UCCSV and we are excited to see how God has been moving in your life through your Star Word this past year.
